BANK DEBITS

Below is given the Federal Reserve Board's weekly statement of debits to individual account, reported through the Federal Reserve banks by over 150 of the country's more important clearing houses. Transactions cover the weekly periods ending Wednesday, January 21 and 14, of the present year, and January 22, 1919. The statement closes with a recapitulation giving comparative figures by reserve districts for centers reporting complete data for the three weeks under review.

Aggregate debits to individual account reported for 147 clearing-house centers for the week under review were 189.7 millions in excess of the corresponding total the week before, all the more important cities, except Cleveland, New Orleans and Minneapolis, reporting larger figures. As compared with the corresponding total for the week ending January 22, 1919, an increase of 25 per cent in total debits is shown, figures for all reserve districts, except Minneapolis, being substantially higher than last year. Larger than average increases since last year in weekly debits are reported for banks in Detroit, Dallas and Los Angeles.
