FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

Fiscal Agent of the United States

[Circular No. 2308
November 5, 1941]

Public Notice of Offering of $150,000,000, or thereabouts, of Treasury Bills

Dated November 12, 1941 Maturing February 11, 1942

To all Incorporated Banks and Trust Companies in the Second Federal Reserve District and Others Concerned:

Following is the text of a notice today made public by the Treasury Department with respect to a new offering of Treasury bills payable at maturity without interest to be sold on a discount basis to the highest bidders.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
Washington

FOR RELEASE, MORNING NEWSPAPERS,
Wednesday, November 5, 1941.

The Secretary of the Treasury, by this public notice, invites tenders for $150,000,000, or thereabouts, of 91-day Treasury bills, to be issued on a discount basis under competitive bidding. The bills of this series will be dated November 12, 1941, and will mature February 11, 1942, when the face amount will be payable without interest. They will be issued in bearer form only, and in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, $500,000, and $1,000,000 (maturity value).

Tenders will be received at Federal Reserve Banks and Branches up to the closing hour, two o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard time, Friday, November 7, 1941. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington. Each tender must be for an even multiple of $1,000, and the price offered must be expressed on the basis of 100, with not more than three decimals, e. g., 99.925. Fractions may not be used. It is urged that tenders be made on the printed forms and forwarded in the special envelopes which will be supplied by Federal Reserve Banks or Branches on application therefor.

Tenders will be received without deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by payment of 10 percent of the face amount of Treasury bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Immediately after the closing hour, tenders will be opened at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches, following which public announcement will be made by the Secretary of the Treasury of the amount and price range of accepted bids. Those submitting tenders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection thereof. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to accept or reject any or all tenders, in whole or in part, and his action in any such respect shall be final. Payment of accepted tenders at the prices offered must be made or completed at the Federal Reserve Bank in cash or other immediately available funds on November 12, 1941.

The income derived from Treasury bills, whether interest or gain from the sale or other disposition of the bills, shall not have any exemption, as such, and loss from the sale or other disposition of Treasury bills shall not have any special treatment, as such, under Federal tax Acts now or hereafter enacted. The bills shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift, or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority. For purposes of taxation the amount of discount at which Treasury bills are originally sold by the United States shall be considered to be interest. Under Sections 42 and 117 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Section 115 of the Revenue Act of 1941, the amount of discount at which bills issued hereunder are sold shall not be considered to accrue until such bills shall be sold, redeemed or otherwise disposed of, and such bills are excluded from consideration as capital assets. Accordingly, the owner of Treasury bills (other than life insurance companies) issued hereunder need include in his income tax return only the difference between the price paid for such bills, whether on original issue or on subsequent purchase, and the amount actually received either upon sale or redemption at maturity during the taxable year for which the return is made, as ordinary gain or loss.

Treasury Department Circular No. 418, as amended, and this notice, prescribe the terms of the Treasury bills and govern the conditions of their issue. Copies of the circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch.

In accordance with the above announcement tenders will be received at the Securities Department of this bank (9th floor, 33 Liberty Street, New York City) or at the Buffalo Branch of this bank (272 Main Street, Buffalo, New York) up to two o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard time, on Friday, November 7, 1941.

It is requested that tenders be submitted on special form and in special envelope enclosed herewith.

Attention is invited to the fact that payment for the Treasury bills cannot be made by credit through the War Loan Deposit Account. Payment must be made in cash or other immediately available funds.

ALLAN SPROUL,
President.

No._____

TENDER FOR 91-DAY TREASURY BILLS

Dated November 12, 1941. Maturing February 11, 1942.

Dated at _____

_____1941

To THE FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK,
Fiscal Agent of the United States,
New York City, N. Y.

Pursuant to the provisions of Treasury Department Circular No. 418, as amended, and to the provisions of the public notice on November 5, 1941, as issued by the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned offers to pay_____* for a total amount of (Rate per 100)
$_____ (maturity value) of the Treasury bills therein described, or for any less amount that may be awarded, payment therefor to be made at your bank in cash or other immediately available funds on the date stated in the public notice.

The Treasury bills for which tender is hereby made are to be dated November 12, 1941, and are to mature on February 11, 1942.

This tender will be inserted in special envelope entitled "Tender for Treasury bills."

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS:

1. No tender for less than $1,000 will be considered, and each tender must be for an even multiple of $1,000 (maturity value). Also, if more than one price is offered, a separate tender must be executed at each price.

2. If the person making the tender is a corporation, the tender should be signed by an officer of the corporation authorized to make the tender, and the signing of the tender by an officer of the corporation will be construed as a representation by him that he has been so authorized. If the tender is made by a partnership, it should be signed by a member of the firm, who should sign in the form "_____, a copartnership, by_____, a member of the firm."

3. Tenders will be received without deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by payment of 10 percent of the face amount of Treasury bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

4. If the language of this tender is changed in any respect, which, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, is material, the tender may be disregarded.

Payment by credit through War Loan Deposit Account will not be permitted.

DEFENSE SAVINGS BOND STOCK, SERIES E

To Issuing Agents in the Second Federal Reserve District
Qualified for Sale of Defense Savings Bonds of Series E.

In accordance with your requisition, we are sending you a consignment of Defense Savings Bond stock, Series E.

This stock has been assembled somewhat differently from the stock previously issued, in that both registration stubs are directly beneath the bond proper. Henceforth all Defense Savings Bond stock, Series E, will be assembled in this manner. This stock should not, however, be used prior to January 1, 1942, unless you have exhausted all of the old stock previously issued to you. After December 31, 1941, only stock in the new type assembly may be used. Instructions will be furnished at a later date regarding the return to this bank of stock in the old assembly which you have not used before January 1, 1942.

Procedure for handling new assembly. The original and duplicate registration stubs are assembled directly beneath and attached to the bonds in such manner that by interleaving them with carbon paper the inscription on the bond and each stub can be completed in one operation without separating the assembly. A typewriter must be used for this purpose. After the bond and stubs have been properly filled in, they may be separated, and the lower portion of the sheet of which the duplicate stub is a part should be detached and disposed of. The original and duplicate stubs should then, as heretofore, be forwarded to this bank.

ALLAN SPROUL,
President.
