REVIEW OF AUGUST.

August was marked by a succession of unfavorable events, all tending anew to unsettle confidence in the financial world and causing further sharp breaks in security values. There were additional conflicts between the railroads and the State authorities in the South and startling developments in the crusade against the so-called trusts. On Aug. 2 came the news that the license of the Southern Railway to do business in the State of Alabama had been revoked by the Secretary of State at Montgomery, Ala. On Aug. 3 it was announced that Judge Kenesaw M. Landis had finally given judgment in the case of the U. S. Government against the Standard Oil Company, which had been convicted under the Elkins Law of 1903 of having shipped oil at concessions from the alleged legal rates, and had imposed a fine in amount of $29,240,000, being the maximum fine of $20,000 for each of 1,462 counts in the indictment, each covering the movement of a car of oil. He at the same time ordered the convening of a new special Federal Grand Jury with a view to bringing proceedings against the Chicago & Alton (the road over which the oil had been shipped), the inference being that a similar huge fine would be imposed upon the railroad company.

On Monday, Aug. 5, the Commissioner of Corporations, Herbert Knox Smith, made public part two of his report on the petroleum industry, dealing mainly with the Standard Oil Company, and declaring it a monopoly and saying the assertion that it had reduced prices was untrue. On Aug. 6 came indications of railroad troubles in a new direction. It was announced that the day before, at St. Paul, Minn., Judge Willis Van Devanter of the United States Circuit Court had issued an injunction returnable in the Federal Circuit Court at Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 2, restraining the Secretary of State of Arkansas from declaring forfeited the property of the Chicago Rock Island & Pacific Railroad, and stopping proceedings to collect a fine of $1,000 a day from the company for having violated a statute passed by the last Arkansas Legislature providing that any corporation which should commence a suit in the U. S. Court against any citizen of Arkansas, or which should remove any suit pending in a State Court into the United States Court, should forfeit all rights to do business in the State and be subject to a penalty of $1,000 a day for each day it should thereafter continue to do business therein. About the same time the daily papers reported a movement on foot to call a convention of the Attorneys-General of all the States in the United States with a view to determining upon a concerted action in trust prosecutions and to swap evidence. Early in the month a Federal Grand Jury at Chicago had brought indictments against the fish trust (A. Booth & Company) and two railroads, and it was stated the indictments covered a total of 180 counts, with a total maximum fine upon conviction of $3,600,000. All the time, too, high Government officials were giving out threatening interviews. In one of these Secretary Bonaparte used the expression that there was "a pretty big covey of game," and that he would have to be a poor marksman if he "failed to land a bird or two." On Aug. 12 still another installment of the report of Commissioner of Corporations Smith was given out. This declared that the Standard Oil Company sold at lower figures abroad than in this country, and that there were wide discriminations also in its charges for oil in various States and localities.

Finally there came the speech of Secretary of War Taft at Columbus, O., August 19 and the speech of President Roosevelt himself at Provincetown, Mass., on August 20. These speeches had been looked forward to in the hope that they would show some recognition of the seriousness of the situation into which the country was drifting. Secretary Taft, however, simply reflected and reiterated the views of the President, and Mr. Roosevelt startled the whole world by expressing the opinion that "certain malefactors of great wealth" were responsible for the collapse in values on the Stock Exchange and were engaged in attempts to discredit his administration in order that they might "enjoy the fruits of their own evil-doing." He at the same time announced that his policy and purpose were and would remain unaltered during the remaining eighteen months of his term.

A strike of the telegraph operators also proved disturbing.

The advance in the Bank of England rate of discount on August 15 from 4 to 4½% and the still higher rates prevailing for discount in the open market was likewise an adverse influence. The failure of New York and Boston to dispose of their bond offerings was still another adverse feature. An apparently complete collapse in the copper trade with stocks accumulating and with producers glad of a strike at Butte as giving opportunity to close some of the mines at that point added to the feeling of gloom. One manifestation of trouble in the business world was the appointment of receivers for the Pope Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of automobiles. The latter part of the month came the announcement that the Southern Railway had reduced its semi-annual dividend on its preferred shares from 2½ to 1½%, and that the Erie Company would make payment of the dividends on first and second preferred shares in scrip instead of in cash.

The feeling at the close of the month was more hopeful, owing mainly to the announcement of Secretary Cortelyou's policy for distributing Government money among the banks at the rate of $5,000,000 a week over a period of about eight weeks, with a view to relieving the strain in the money market, and indications that New York City's new bond offering of $40,000,000, announced for September, with the rate of interest raised to 4½%, would be a success.

The stock market was in a state of extreme depression until the latter part of the month when a sluggish recovery ensued. The reasons for this are narrated n the facts above. The investigation of the Interborough-Metropolitan Company, with the shrinkage in the securities of all the related companies, and the unfavorable rumors pending concerning the same, contributed to the demoralization prevailing, as did the weakness of Amalgamated Copper and the state of the copper trade.

* Trust companies out of market, because of low rates.

Foreign exchange was firm at the opening of the month, but the rise in money rates here caused a sharp fall in sterling, and the fall was accelerated by the offerings of finance and security bills. The advance in the Bank of England rate of discount, was followed by a sharp advance to figures very near the New York gold-export point. The latter part of the month easier discounts in London as a result of Secretary Cortelyou's policy led to lower exchange rates again.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD

The following tables furnish a complete record of the New York Stock Exchange transactions for the past month and the year 1906. They need no extended introduction, as they are self-explanatory. The tables embrace every security (excepting only State bonds) dealt in on the Exchange. We give bonds first, using the classification adopted in the official list. As to prices the form is our own, and we think it will be found to contain just the facts desired by our readers and to present them in the most convenient way for study and reference. All quotations in the column headed "Price about January 2 1907" were made on that date, except those in italics, which are the nearest in January 1907. The black-faced letters in the column headed "Interest Period" indicate in each case the month when the bonds mature.

☞ For foot notes to tables see last page of Bonds and last page of stocks.

BONDS AND STOCKS.

1. In the following thirty pages of tables, quotations are given for all the more important securities listed on any Stock Exchange in the United States; also for leading unlisted and inactive securities.

2. Quotations from all Stock Exchanges are as near as possible for the closing day of the month preceding the date of issue Of course the coupon, if there be one, maturing between the date of quotation and the date of this publication, is not deducted from the price.

3. Bond prices marked (a) indicate that the purchaser must pay accrued interest in addition to the price given. The method of quoting on the New York Stock Exchange is to quote the price flat (that is, to include the accrued interest in the price), and hence in the tables below no mark is now affixed where this method of quoting is followed.

4. Stock prices marked thus (d) are per share. All others are per cent except bank stock prices, which are quoted per share unless otherwise stated.

5. It should be borne in mind in the use of these tables that the quotations for many inactive and unlisted securities are merely nominal, but in all cases the figures are obtained from sources which are considered reliable.

6. The following abbreviations are often used, viz.: "M" for mortgage, "g" for gold, "g'd" for guaranteed, "end" for endorsed, "cons" for consolidated, "conv" for convertible, "s f" for sinking fund, "l g" for land grant, "op" for optional.

7. The black-faced type in the letters showing the interest period indicates the month when the bonds mature.

STREET AND ELECTRIC RAILWAYS

In response to the request of many subscribers, we have changed the order of arrangement of the Street and Electric Railway Securities contained in the following lists. The previous practice was to group them by cities. This was a satisfactory and logical arrangement so long as the railways remained distinctly local enterprises and confined to the limits of a single city. But with the introduction of electricity as motive power most of the local systems have by degrees been transformed into interurban roads, some of them covering wide stretches of territory and connecting numerous cities and towns. In such cases the reader might look under several places before finding the one under which the road was given. To obviate this difficulty, we have recast the entire list and arranged the roads all in alphabetical order according to the names. Where the title is that of a street (like Third Avenue RR.), the securities will still be found grouped together in most cases, it being possible to do this because the controlling company usually bears the name of the city where it is located. Thus the New York City lines will be found under the New York City Railway, the Philadelphia lines under the Philadelphia Rapid Transit, &c. Cross references will assist the reader in finding any particular security.

Prices marked thus (a) indicate that the purchaser has to pay accrued interest in addition to the price given. Prices not marked are flat prices—that is, the purchaser does not pay accrued interest in addition.

STATE AND MUNICIPAL BONDS.

It is not the custom in quoting municipal bonds to include accrued interest in the price given. Hence this accrued interest must in all cases be added on. There are a very few instances which form exceptions to the rule—that is, where the prices given are flat prices, the accrued interest having been taken into account in making them. These are indicated by a special mark, thus (*).

The figures in the column "to net" indicate the basis on which the securities sell or the interest rate which the securities, if held to maturity, will net to the purchaser at the present market price.

BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES.

Quotations in this department are given per share, not per cent, except for stocks of New York City, Brooklyn and Canadian institutions, and are as near as possible for the closing day of the month preceding the date of issue, though often are nominal. An asterisk (*) denotes sales. The letter (h) prefixed to a price indicates that the figures show the book value.

Figures of deposits, capital and profits for the national banks are from the Comptroller's last call; for all other institutions they are the latest obtainable, direct returns being procured by us where no periodic statements are required. For the Clearing-House banks of New York, Philadelphia and Boston, deposits are taken from the latest weekly statement.
