REVIEW OF MAY.

There were numerous influences of large importance during May, including the movement on the part of the railroads to raise railroad rates, with the efforts of shippers and the Government to checkmate the same; the revival of the European demand for American securities and the amendment of the Administration Railroad Rate Bill in the two Houses of Congress in the direction of making it still more radical. But the event of chief moment was the death of Edward VII., King of Great Britain and Ireland. King Edward suffered an attack of bronchitis, which, being attended by heart failure, quickly led to a fatal termination. The King was ill only a few days, and the public had no intimation of the serious nature of his ailment until Thursday evening, May 5, when an official bulletin was issued saying there was "some anxiety" regarding his condition. This appeared in the newspapers Friday morning, May 6, and was followed by alarming accounts as the day progressed. He died at 11:45 that night.

The shock was a most unexpected one. The sense of loss experienced was the more keen, as the King was dearly beloved both by his own people and a large part of the rest of the world. His death came, too, at a time when both political and financial affairs in Great Britain were in a state of more than ordinary tension. In looking after Great Britain's relations with foreign countries, the King had won for himself a reputation as a peacemaker, and it was not easy to blot out the feeling that the absence of his influence in that respect must be seriously missed in the future; but fortunately international affairs are in a very composed state at this time. British home politics, however, have been in a ferment on account of the action of the existing Government in seeking to abolish the powers of the House of Lords. King Edward's tact and diplomacy could not but have proved useful at such a juncture. Moreover, from a financial standpoint any further unsettling influence was looked upon as unfortunate. An excited speculation had for a long time been prevailing in rubber and oil shares, besides which the Government was making unusual drafts upon the money markets, owing to the fact that on account of the long delay in the passage of the British Budget a large portion of the taxes for the previous fiscal year, particularly the income tax, the collection of which under ordinary circumstances would have been distributed over a considerable time, was coming in all at once.

Fortunately, however, the anxiety and forebodings in these respects engendered by the first news of the King's death proved subsequently in large measure unwarranted. With the death of King Edward the Prince of Wales became King, taking the title of George V., and the easy transition of the Crown served once more to demonstrate the strength and good qualities of the English political system. As to the strife between the two political parties, the death of King Edward and the accession of King George, instead of intensifying the struggle, led to a cessation of active warfare for the time being. In view of the common loss sustained, there seemed a desire on the part of the political contestants to cultivate a spirit of amity and concord in harmony with the occasion and also in accord with the gospel of peace and good-will which the dead King had sought to inculcate during his life. The result, at all events, has been that the trial of issues between the two political parties seems likely now to be deferred to a later date than doubtless would have happened had King Edward not been taken away. Apprehension regarding financial affairs was also quickly seen to be groundless. The Bank of England had fortified itself against all contingencies through its gold accumulations of the previous month, when the United States alone shipped $32,000,000, and through the maintenance of a 4% rate of discount.

In our own financial outlook a great change for the better also occurred. Export shipments of gold to Europe ceased and our foreign exchange market at times was weak. The change was mainly brought about through the placing of enormous blocks of American securities abroad, more especially in France. The precise extent of these new loan flotations abroad cannot be stated, but the aggregate was undoubtedly very large. The most important single event was the closing of negotiations by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. with a group of leading French banks for the sale of $50,000,000 4% 15-year debentures of the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. It was announced that these bonds would be admitted to the official quotation of the French Bourse, the consent of the French Governmental authorities thereto having been obtained. The loan is to be issued entirely in foreign denominations (500 francs and 2,500 francs) and the probable issue price is given as 97. Several other companies also placed loans abroad. We need not refer to the sale of the $8,500,000 4% short-term notes of the Lake Shore in Paris, for that was an earlier transaction, but another one of the Vanderbilt lines, namely the Cleve. Cin. Chic. & St. L., negotiated $10,000,000 4% debentures through J. P. Morgan & Co. Then, also, Speyer & Co. and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. purchased $40,000,000 3-year 4½% notes of the Baltimore & Ohio RR. and it was stated these notes had been quickly resold, "largely abroad." A block of $3,049,500 first mortgage 5% bonds of the Missouri Oklahoma & Gulf was offered simultaneously in London, Paris and New York and is believed to have been chiefly taken on the other side. The St. Louis & San Francisco RR. issued and had listed on the Paris Bourse (but not in New York) $7,500,000 general lien 5% bonds known as the French series.

It was also stated that the syndicate which had underwritten the $18,000,000 adjustment bonds of the Seaboard Air Line had placed abroad about $6,700,000 of the issue and that it was expected a public offering of the bonds would soon be made in London. The Missouri Kansas & Texas was understood to have placed an issue of $10,000,000 of bonds abroad through Speyer & Co.

To offset in part the great addition to railroad expenses which will result from the general advances that have been made in wages, United States railroads, moved by a common impulse, entered upon a course of raising their transportation charges, both for passengers and for freight, though the advances in passenger rates were chiefly here in the East and related in the main to the charge for commutation tickets. In freight rates the Western roads at the close of April had filed new tariffs with the Inter-State Commerce Commission providing for higher schedules of charges to go into effect June 1. These advances related to the territory west of Chicago and covered many classes of goods and commodities; the increase seemed to average 10 to 15%. During May the Eastern trunk lines gave notice of an intention to advance their so-called class rates, the increases to become effective about July 15. Sixth-class freight between Chicago and New York is to be raised from 25 cts. to 27 cts., fifth-class from 30 to 33 cts., fourth-class from 35 to 40 cts., third-class from 50 to 60 cts., second-class from 65 to 78 cts. and first-class from 75 to 90 cts. The Chicago-New York rates form the basis for the class rates to and from all other points in trunk-line territory and accordingly there will be a general advance in class rates in that territory.

These moves of the railroads were vigorously opposed by shippers, particularly at first those proposed in trunk-line territory. In the rates west of Chicago the Federal Government on the last day of the month also took a hand against the proposed increase. Late at night on that day U. S. District Judge David P. Dyer at Hannibal, Mo., on the allegation of the Government that the advances in rates had been agreed upon in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust law, restrained twenty-four Western roads from putting into effect on June 1 the higher rates proposed. The news of this move of the Government caused a violent break in prices on the Stock Exchange in the afternoon of May 31. It so happened, too, that announcement came the same afternoon that the U. S. Supreme Court had decided against the roads in the so-called Missouri River rate case, where the Inter-State Commerce Commission had undertaken to readjust rates between the Mississippi and Missouri rivers.

The crop situation on the whole assumed an encouraging aspect. The report of the Agricultural Department at Washington, issued May 9, came as an agreeable surprise, for it showed that the storms and frost and cold weather during April had done little or no damage to wheat, the general average of condition having actually improved during April and being reported at 82.1 May 1, against 80.8 April 1. The report showed that the area under wheat had been greatly reduced by winter killing, but it also showed that the area still remaining under cultivation was nevertheless 714,000 acres larger than that from which the crop the previous year had been harvested. As the month progressed the outlook appeared steadily to improve. Wheat prospects in other countries also became highly favorable. Prices of wheat sharply declined, and the latter part of the month James A. Patten, who had been holding large quantities for higher prices, found himself obliged to liquidate and take his losses. Values thereupon collapsed. July wheat in Chicago dropped from $1 05⅞ May 9 to 91⅞c. May 31. Other grains also suffered severe breaks, July corn at Chicago falling from 63⅜c. to 56⅛c. and July oats from 41c. to 35½c.

In cotton likewise the Patten interest met with ill success in their attempts to bull prices. No corner in the May option for that staple was attempted, as had been feared. The tender of actual cotton on May contracts reached enormous proportions—no less than 335,500 bales—and, indeed, it was claimed it was because the Patten people were obliged to take such enormous amounts of cotton that they were forced to let go their wheat holdings. The outlook for the new cotton crop appeared steadily to improve the latter half of the month. Middling upland cotton in this market, after rising from 15.25c. April 30 to 16.05c. May 13, closed May 31 at 14.50c., 8-10ths of a cent of this decline having come the last day.

In the money market there was a gradual return to normal rates after the flurry the previous month.

The stock market was extremely dull, with the course of prices irregular, until the afternoon of the closing day, May 31, when the receipt of advices that President Taft had instructed Attorney-General Wickersham to bring suit against the Western railroads to enjoin the advances in freight rates which were to go into effect June 1 caused a severe break. The tone at the close was utterly demoralized.

In the foreign exchange market a sharp fall in rates was precipitated early in May, carrying quotations far below the gold-export point. This was on news of the sale of large blocks of American securities abroad, making likely considerable supplies of exchange from that source. The market became demoralized Wednesday, May 4, and so continued May 5, but this was followed May 6 and May 7 by an upward reaction on the intelligence concerning King Edward's illness and subsequent death. The upward movement was carried still further the third week of the month, and it became evident that speculators had oversold the market in anticipation of the large amounts of exchange that were to come with the placing of so many new loans abroad. The highest figures of the month were reached May 23, some fears being then entertained of a possible squeeze in money in London at the time of the fortnightly settlement. After that the tendency was almost steadily downward, but closing rates were nevertheless nearly a cent per pound higher than on May 11.

CONDITION OF THE TRUST COMPANIES OF NEW YORK STATE.

We present below comparative statements showing the condition of the trust companies of New York State at the date of the last call and of various previous calls since August 1907. We give separately the totals for the Greater New York and those for the whole State. We also add tables to indicate the changes in deposits for all the separate companies in the different boroughs of the city.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

MONTHLY AND YEARLY RECORD

The following tables furnish a complete record of the New York Stock Exchange transactions for the past month and the year 1910. They need no extended introduction, as they are self-explanatory. The tables embrace every security (excepting only State bonds) dealt in on the Exchange. We give bonds first, using the classification adopted in the official list. All quotations in the column headed "Price about January 2 1910" were made on that date, except those in italics, which are the nearest in January 1910. The black-faced letters in the column headed "Interest Period" indicate in each case the month when the bonds mature.

In accordance with the new rule adopted by the New York Stock Exchange, all quotations for interest-paying bonds are at a price to which accrued interest must be added. The exceptions to the rule are income bonds and bonds on which nterest is in default. This method of quoting bonds became effective January 2 1909.

BONDS AND STOCKS.

1. In the following thirty pages of tables, quotations are given for all the more important securities listed on any Stock Exchange in the United States; also for leading unlisted and inactive securities.

2. Quotations from all Stock Exchanges are as near as possible for the closing day of the month preceding the date of issue. As the New York Stock Exchange began with Jan. 2 1909 to quote all bond prices "and interest," we have adopted the same method, and no longer employ a designating mark to indicate the fact except where there is a deviation from this rule. The reader will understand, therefore, that unless the letter "f" is prefixed to the price, he must pay accrued interest in addition to the price. This, however, does not apply to income bonds or bonds in default, in which cases the price includes the interest, should there be any.

3. The letter "f" prefixed to bond prices denotes that the quotation is a flat price—that is, that the accrued interest forms part of the price, and therefore the purchaser does not have to provide for it separately in making payment. As already stated in the case of income bonds and bonds in default, the price is always "flat," and no designating mark is employed to indicate the fact.

4. Stock prices marked thus (d) are per share. All others are per cent except bank stock prices, which are quoted per share unless otherwise stated.

5. It should be borne in mind in the use of these tables that the quotations for many inactive and unlisted securities are merely nominal, but in all cases the figures are obtained from sources which are considered reliable.

6. The following abbreviations are often used, viz.: "M" for mortgage, "g" for gold, "g'd" for guaranteed, "end" for endorsed, "cons" for consolidated, "conv" for convertible, "s f" for sinking fund, "l g" for land grant, "op" for optional.

7. The black-faced type in the letters showing the interest period indicates the month when the bonds mature.

NOTICE.—All bond prices are now "and interest" except where marked "f" and income and defaulted bonds.

STREET AND ELECTRIC RAILWAYS

In quoting street and electric railway bonds, we employ the same method as in quoting the bonds of steam railroads. The great majority of issues being quoted "and interest," we use no designating mark whatever where that is the case. On the other hand, we prefix the letter "f" where there is a deviation from this rule; in such cases the interest forms part of the price. Unless, therefore, "f" appears against a quotation, the buyer will understand that the accrued interest is to be added on. This, however, does not apply to income bonds and bonds in default, in which cases the price takes account of the interest and no designating mark is employed.

NOTICE.—All bond prices are now "and interest" except where marked "f," and income and defaulted bonds.

d Price per share, not per cent. k Last sale. n Nominal. s Sale price. x Ex-dividend. y Ex-rights.

MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES.

Quotations marked "f" indicate that accrued interest is included in the price. Prices not marked are "and interest" that is, purchaser has to pay accrued interest in addition to the price. This, however, does not apply to income bonds and bonds in default, in which cases the price takes account of the interest and no designating mark is employed.

NOTICE.—All bond prices are now "and interest" except where marked "f" and income and defaulted bonds.

STATE AND MUNICIPAL BONDS.

It is not the custom in quoting municipal bonds to include accrued interest in the price given. Hence this accrued interest must in all cases be added on. There are a very few instances which form exceptions to the rule—that is, where the prices given are flat prices, the accrued interest having been taken into account in making them. These are indicated by a special mark, thus (f).

The figures in the column "to net" indicate the basis on which the securities sell or the interest rate which the securities, if held to maturity, will net to the purchaser at the present market price.

BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES.

Quotations in this department are given per share, not per cent, except for stocks of New York City, Brooklyn and Canadian institutions, and are as near as possible for the closing day of the month preceding the date of issue, though often are nominal. An asterisk (*) denotes sales. The letter (h) prefixed to a price indicates that the figures show the book value.

Figures of deposits, capital and profits for the national banks are from the Comptroller's last call; for all other institutions they are the latest obtainable, direct returns being procured by us where no periodic statements are required. For the Clearing-House banks of New York, Philadelphia and Boston, deposits are taken from the latest weekly statement.

Where Names are Printed in Italics Fuller Returns may be Found in the Advertising Columns
