Dear Marriner,

I am sending under separate cover a folder containing all of the publicity in connection with the opening of the Bank. I thought you would like to see it and have it in your files.

I cannot tell you how much good your visit to Atlanta has done and reiterate that the splendid constructive talks you made at our two meetings and at the luncheon are going to have a lasting effect on the general education of our community in connection with banking, financial, and credit matters.

Looking forward to seeing you soon in Washington, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Marriner S. Eccles

Dear Frank:

I appreciate very much your sending me the folder containing all of the publicity in connection with the opening of the Atlanta Bank.

It makes me very happy to have you feel that my visit to Atlanta and the talks I made were helpful and constructive. Although it was with some hesitation that I made the trip, I must confess that I enjoyed every moment of the two days I spent there. I am sure that was due almost entirely to your splendid leadership and the untiring efforts you put forth to make the occasion successful from every standpoint.

I was impressed with the remarkable job you are doing in bringing new life into the entire Federal Reserve organization in the sixth district. Although I have always felt that your selection as Chairman of the Bank in Atlanta was a fortunate one, after my visit there, I am convinced of the fact.

Please remember me to Mrs. Neely and your daughter.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Frank Neely,
Executive Vice President and Secretary,
