

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD
WASHINGTON

December 3, 1935

My dear Marriner:

You will remember my mentioning to you the other night at dinner that it would be very much appreciated if some evening you would drop over and talk to our senior conference group on some such general subject as home financing and the Federal Reserve, or the relation of the Federal Reserve to home financing. These conference talks are generally limited to thirty minutes, and after that there is an hour of general discussion in which the speaker is the focal point for questions.

I am tentatively putting you down for the evening of February 13, 1936, and if this date is not agreeable, we can substitute either February 27 or March 12. In the absence of advice, I will assume that February 13th is agreeable.

Personal regards.

Very sincerely yours,

Preston Delano
