Mr. Marriner S. Eccles,
Governor, Federal Reserve Bank,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Marriner:

I was very pleased indeed to read in last night's newspaper that you have been re-appointed a member of the Federal Reserve Board for another term.

I know that this re-appointment is in recognition of the very fine work that you have already done for the United States Government in the field of banking and economics, and it is my opinion that the Government is fortunate indeed to have you in the Federal Reserve Bank.

Please accept my hearty congratulations on your re-appointment, and let me extend to you my best wishes for continued success in your work.

Sincerely,

S. M. STROHECKER, JR.,
Lt. Col., Ord. Dept.

Dear Sam:

This is to acknowledge with many thanks your congratulatory note of January 22 regarding my reappointment as Chairman for another term.

I appreciate your taking the time and trouble in these crowded days to write to me, as well as your flattering and encouraging comments.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely yours,
