

Franklin D. Roosevelt

President of the United States of America.

To all who shall see these presents, Greeting:

Know Ye, that reposing special trust and confidence in the Integrity, Diligence, and Discretion of Marriner S. Eccles, of Utah, I do appoint him a Member of the Federal Reserve Board for the unexpired portion of the term of ten years from August 10, 1923, and do authorize and empower him to execute and fulfil the duties of that Office according to law, and to have and to hold the said Office, with all the powers, privileges and emoluments thereunto of right appertaining, unto him the said Marriner S. Eccles, during the pleasure of the President of the United States for the time being, and until the end of the next session of the Senate of the United States and no longer.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this tenth _____ day of November, _____ in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty four, _____ and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty ninth.

By the President:

Franklin D. Roosevelt

Wm. C. Clegg
Acting Secretary of State
