

January 23, 1948

My dear Mr. President:

According to Associated Press reports it is predicted by "usually informed persons" that you will reappoint the Honorable Marriner S. Eccles as Chairman of the Federal Reserve System. This is good news indeed. We have always considered Mr. Eccles the most loyal, brilliant, and courageous public servant that the Government has ever had in a comparable position. We shall congratulate you, the country, and Mr. Eccles if you will only reappoint him.

With my very best good wishes,

Ever sincerely,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in dark ink, likely belonging to F. R. von Windegger, is written over the typed name and extends across the right side of the page.

F. R. von Windegger

Honorable Harry S. Truman
President of the United States
White House
Washington, D. C.

FRVW:le