It was both a pleasure and a privilege to have been of service Please consider my organization and myself always subject to the command of your goodself or your great chief, the President. I am confident that the passage of your bill including Title two will be definitely assured after the Senate Banking Currency Committee has heard from you. May I offer you my congratulations on its anticipated passage. Cordial regards.

Dear Mr. Clayton: Just received yours of the 29th inst.

The statement prepared by you was just the thing and you will note from the enclosed N.Y. Post clipping that a good portion of your stuff was used in its Editorial - what I have marked agrees with you that the suggested copy I sent you, would have diverted attention. It was, however, only a rough and hasty prepared draft to serve just as a starter for the article you were to prepare. Had no thought of releasing it

¹⁰⁰⁰ Enclosing clipping from today's N.Y.
American from which you will note a deadlock in sub Committee is sort of predicted by Columnist Page Koch and Brown.
You let me suggest that if a deadlock did occur then you perhaps place have an ace in the hole left and this is that it be convened as an Executive Session ~~and~~ and ~~and~~ arranged to come to Washington before the Committee and enlighten them on the strange hold Morgan exercises over the J.P. Bank and the H. Rydekin generally - Survey of Germany
