Ottawa,

September 14th, 1942

My dear Mr. Ransom,

Thank you very much for your letter of September 11th. I would like to lunch with you and other members of the Board on Monday, September 21st if that suits your convenience. I will telephone your office on Monday morning to find out if that day is convenient, or whether another day would be better from your point of view.

Sincerely yours,

Ronald Ransom, Esq.,
Vice Chairman of the Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington.
