Dear Marriner:

I have to be in Washington on the 10th and am planning to come a day ahead of that time in order to do some visiting with the Board of Governors. I want to have time for a talk with you sometime during the day. I am not asking now for a definite appointment. I'll get in touch with your office and see you at such time during the day, if any, as suits your convenience.

With every good wish for the New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,
