Dear Marriner:

I will be in Washington this coming Saturday, Sunday and Monday. I am not coming on bank business. We are having a hearing Monday on the new food and drug law. That is the real purpose of my trip.

I have nothing that I need especially to bother you about, but if you have any spare time and would like to see me, I am quite sure I can accommodate my time to suit your convenience for a visit. I will be at the Shoreham Hotel, where you can reach me Saturday and Sunday.

Very truly yours,

W. J. Nardin
