Miss Valerie Egbert,
Secretary to Governor M. S. Eccles,
Federal Reserve Board Building,
Washington, D. C.

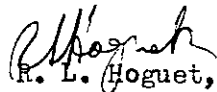

Dear Miss Egbert:

I wonder whether you would do an old friend a favor and send me a copy of each of the two pending so-called Mead Bills. If the Senate and the House each have different versions, I should appreciate having samples of both.

If there is any expense in connection with this, I shall be glad to reimburse you.

With my kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

R. L. Hoguet, Jr.

Dear Mr. Hoguet:

In accordance with your letter of July 6, I am enclosing two copies each of the two bills introduced by Senator Mead on February 17 and May 8, 1939, respectively.

With kind regards,
