Dear Marriner:

I received the transcript of your testimony before the Senate Committee explaining your position on the loan to Great Britain.

I am always deeply interested in the analysis of any banking problem and I trust you will instruct your Secretary to send me releases of speeches made or testimony given in this connection. This analysis cleared up a lot of things that were confusing to me that are published in the press and come over the radio.

With kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
