Mr. Marriner S. Eccles
Chairman of the Board of Governors
Federal Reserve Bank
Washington, D. C.

My dear Marriner:

I read with much interest last night the copy of the speech which you gave in New Orleans. Bob was generous enough to allow me to read it, and I certainly gained a different picture of the reception which it received than that obtained from newspapers.

You are very courageous, and your support of the principles in which you believe leaves no ambiguity in anyones mind.

Many questions were aroused in my mind, but they can only be answered verbally.

My very best wishes to you always.

Dorothy B. Nywander.
