

THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF COMMERCE
WASHINGTON

December 14, 1936.

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman,
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Governor Eccles:

Thank you very much indeed for your letter of December 11 with the enclosed copy of a speech which you delivered recently before the 7th New England Bank Management Conference of the New England Council in Boston. I shall be delighted to read this speech with care and with much interest. It is just the kind of educational material which I need, and I appreciate your sending it to me.

Incidentally, I would also appreciate your sending me any other addresses of yours which you may deliver from time to time, in view of the fact that such addresses are most helpful in our work in this Department as well as to me personally.

With best wishes, believe me,

Yours sincerely,
