Dear Mr. Eccles:

The Harvard Business School Alumni Association is holding its Ninth Annual Special Meeting on Friday, June 16, and Saturday, June 17. At this meeting, men of national and international prominence will address our alumni on subjects of importance relating to business, economics and finance.

It is the unanimous desire of this Committee and of our entire Alumni Council that a most cordial invitation be extended to you to be one of the principal speakers at either our Friday or our Saturday session, whichever will be most convenient for you.

In view of your outstanding achievements, we believe that an address by you would be the high-light of our meeting. It has been the good fortune of several members of our Committee to have listened to you on different occasions and I speak for our Committee when I say that any subject you wish to discuss would meet with our enthusiastic approval.

We shall be greatly honored by your acceptance of our invitation and we await your reply with high hope that your decision will be favorable.

Very truly yours,

Chairman,
Program Committee
