

THE BOATMEN'S NATIONAL BANK OF ST. LOUIS

TOM K. SMITH
PRESIDENT

June 27, 1939

Mr. Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman,
Federal Reserve Board,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Elliott:

Please send me a copy of Chairman
Eccles' speech before the Harvard Business School Alumni.

Thanks,

Cordially yours,

President

June 29, 1939.

Dear Tom:

In accordance with your note of June 27, I take pleasure in enclosing a couple of copies of the Chairman's talk before the Harvard Business School Alumni.

We have had a surprising number of requests from bankers for this address. I am puzzled. Maybe the bankers have taken to reading newspapers-- a dubious habit.

I hope I may encounter you off the New England coast sometime this summer, in which case I shall probably ask you what you thought of this speech.

with best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Tom K. Smith, President,
The Boatmen's National Bank of St. Louis,
St. Louis, Missouri.
