

December 5, 1940.

Dear Jerome:

Enclosed is a copy of a speech that the Chairman asked me to send to you because he thought you might be interested in seeing the full text.

He gave it out because some garbled reports of it appeared in the press.

Sincerely yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.

Honorable Jerome Frank, Chairman,
Securities and Exchange Commission,
Washington, D. C.

Mr. Elliott Thurston
Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Thurston:

Many thanks for sending
Mr. Frank a copy of Chairman Eccles' speech before the National Industrial Conference Board. Mr. Frank has been at home ill for a couple of days, but I know he will want to read the text of Chairman Eccles' remarks when he returns.

Sincerely yours,

William T. Raymond
