Honorable Sir,

I was greatly impressed by your address last evening before the National Industrial Conference Board and if you intend making it available would like very much to have a copy.

Unfortunately too few appreciate the adjustments and changes which must be made in the interest of the defense program and to insure a continuation of our present standard of living after the emergency.

Kind regards.

Very truly yours,

Sir:

Inasmuch as your talk before the National Industrial Conference Board Tuesday evening was "on the record", I am wondering if you would be good enough to send me two copies of your remarks.

I found what you had to say extremely interesting, and several of us here in the bank would like the opportunity of reviewing your comments for purposes of our internal discussion groups.

F. R. VONWINDEGGER
PRESIDENT

November 29, 1941

Dear Mr. Eccles:

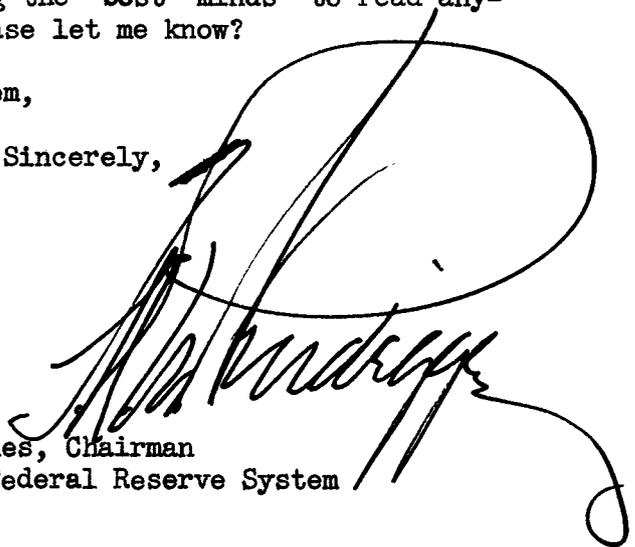

Touchdown! It was high time that not only the National Industrial Conference Board, but the bankers were being told that "the creation, cost and flow of money in the economy" is a function of sovereignty.

Will you please ask your office to send me a copy of your speech before the N. I. C. B.? Would it be asking too much if our name was put on the mailing list to receive copies of all of your speeches which are so helpful and constructive to us here?

Unfortunately I did not here you speak before the Municipal Conference here. I arranged a speech by my friend, Dave Coyle, before the heads of all the banks here at that time. Dave gave them plenty to think about, if possible. (He and I both got a kick out of some of his best points floating over the heads of some of our local "lights".) At the same time I was up to my ears as a member of the Control Committee which will produce "Fun to be Free" here on December tenth. This "hot bed of isolationism and home of Lindbergh" needs something to wake it up. If you ever find any way of persuading the "best minds" to read anything, won't you please let me know?

With my highest esteem,

Sincerely,

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman
Board of Governors, Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. vonWindegger:

In accordance with your letter of November 29, a copy of my talk before the National Industrial Conference Board has been mailed to you. Needless to say, I am pleased to have your favorable comments on it. Your name is also being added to the mailing list to receive copies of speeches, as you request.

I am sorry I did not have the good fortune to see you when I was in St. Louis. It was a complete surprise to me that Chester Davis had arranged for me to appear before the Municipal Conference. I would have very much preferred to listen to Dave Coyle.

In case you discover how to persuade the "best minds" to read, I wish you would let me know.

Again thanking you for your encouragement and with kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
