My dear Mr. Eccles:

I hope you will not consider it impertinent to send you this reminder of your engagement with the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington at the luncheon Friday, April 16. I am writing all the speakers to remind them, and I am especially anxious to make sure that you are lined up properly, as we are looking forward with special interest to your talk.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Marvin H. Creager, President,
The American Society of Newspaper Editors,
Milwaukee Journal,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

My dear Mr. Creager:

Chairman Eccles asked me to acknowledge your note of March 30th reminding him of his engagement for the luncheon on Friday, April 16. As you know, he is compelled to make future engagements contingent upon the demands of his job, but he hopes and expects to be free to come to the luncheon and to speak informally and off the record, as, I understand from Mr. Meyer, he had once done while occupying the same position.

Very truly yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
