Dear Mr. Eccles:

The Manhattan Society has arranged a banquet in honor of your associate, Governor Szymczak, which will be held at the Biltmore Hotel here in New York on the evening of February 21st next. We confidently expect that this affair will be largely attended by the numerous friends and admirers of Mr. Szymczak not only from the Metropolitan District of New York but also from various parts of the country. It is our aim to make this banquet the most successful that we have given in our history.

It would give us extreme pleasure to have you as a guest speaker on this memorable occasion. We extend to you, therefore, our most cordial invitation to honor us with your distinguished presence as a guest speaker at our banquet and trust that you will favor us with your early acceptance.

With assurances of our highest regard and esteem, we are
