Dear Mr. Elliott:

By separate cover we send you copy of the TEXAS BANKERS RECORD for June. On page 13 you will note that Mr. Eccles' likeness at the speakers stand is printed along with eight other speakers. On page 64 you will find a little note promising Mr. Eccles' address in our July issue.

However, if it is Mr. Eccles wish that we do not print his address we can make an explanatory note in our July issue.

Thanking you for your nice letter, and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Secretary

Mr. W. A. Philpott, Jr., Secretary,
Texas Bankers Association,
Dallas, Texas.

Dear Mr. Philpott:

I have held your letter of June 19 for several days in order to make sure that Mr. Eccles did not see his way clear to attempt to correct the stenographic copy of his talk so that it might be published in your Record. As I explained to you before, he feels very definitely that as his talk was intended to be off the record and as the correction of the copy would entail a good deal of time and effort, he would very much prefer not to have it printed, but is appreciative of your courtesy in the matter. I trust that you can insert in a subsequent issue an explanatory note, if necessary, that will take care of the situation.

I want to thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of the June Record.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
