Dear Mr. Eccles:

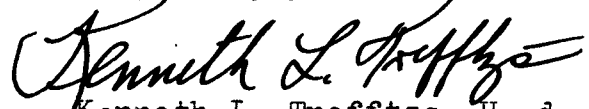

Thank you for accepting the invitation to appear before the members of the Southern California Economic Association on Friday, April 6. It is our practice to meet together for dinner at 6:30 followed by an address and discussion. The meeting will probably take place on or near our campus although final arrangements cannot be completed until Monday. At that time I shall send a note to you at the Biltmore Hotel here.

If it is satisfactory with you I shall call for you at your hotel about 6:10 Friday evening and drive you to the place of the meeting.

I hope that your Seattle trip pleasant. Last year I was a visiting professor there at the University of Washington. I know two of the Directors of the Seattle Branch, Dean Howard Preston and John McGregor.

We look forward to seeing you.

Very truly yours,
