Mr. M. Vilas Hubbard, President
Citizens Commercial Trust & Savings Bank
Pasadena, California

Dear Vilas:

The Officers and Directors of Group 5 California Bankers Association have asked me to express to you their sincere appreciation for your efforts in obtaining Governor Marriner Eccles as the principal speaker for our 1951 Spring Meeting.

You will be pleased, I know, to learn that the consensus of those present was that this Meeting was the most successful of any that our Group has ever had. The attendance also set a new record.

It has been a real pleasure for those of us who have been active in Group 5 to have been associated with you during the past two years. I hope that we may call on you from time to time for advice and counsel.

Sincerely yours,

s/ BRUCE
