

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 943]
[December 6, 1929]

$2.50 Gold Coins

Limited Supply Now Available for Distribution

To all Banks, Trust Companies and Savings Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District:

To help meet the approaching holiday demand for gold coin this bank has just received from the Treasury Department a limited amount of $2.50 gold pieces (quarter eagles). In order that each bank in the Second Federal Reserve District may receive an equitable share of the small amount of these coins on hand an allotment of them has been made and the amount set aside for your institution is stated below. This amount will be forwarded to you provided instructions to that effect are received on or before December 20.

Other Gold Coins Available

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York also has a supply of gold coins in denominations of $5, $10, and $20, which are available for distribution upon request.

GEORGE L. HARRISON,
Governor.
