

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

[Circular No. 1004]
October 29, 1930]

Nomination and Election of Directors

To the Member Banks in the Second Federal Reserve District:

In accordance with the provisions of Section 4 of the Federal Reserve Act and Circular No. 1001 dated October 1, 1930, in regard to election of directors of this bank, for terms of office from January 1, 1931 to December 31, 1933, to succeed DELMER RUNKLE, Class A director, and SAMUEL W. REYBURN, Class B director, whose terms expire December 31, 1930, there are given on the two following pages the names of the candidates nominated for such directors, indicating by whom nominated.

There is sent herewith to each bank in Group 3 a preferential ballot for use in voting on the candidates for Class A director and Class B director. There is also enclosed a certificate envelope bearing on its face the certificate in regard to the vote; also a red colored envelope marked "Ballot", in which the ballot is to be sealed.

The ballot and certificate on the certificate envelope must be executed by an officer who has been authorized to cast the vote. A list showing the officers designated for this purpose by the respective member banks in Group 3 was attached to the circular above mentioned, Circular 1001 dated October 1, 1930, and a similar list amended to October 27, 1930 is attached to this circular beginning at page 4. In order that the ballot may be secret, the name of the bank and the name and title of the voting officer should not be written on the ballot, but should be written only on the certificate envelope.

- (1) After the preferential ballot has been marked,
- (2) It should be placed in the colored envelope marked "Ballot" and the envelope sealed.
- (3) Then after the certificate on the certificate envelope is executed the colored sealed envelope should be placed within and the certificate envelope sealed.
- (4) Then this certificate envelope containing the sealed ballot envelope should be returned to me in the enclosed self-addressed envelope.

The law provides that the ballot shall be cast within 15 days after receipt of the list of candidates transmitted herewith. The polls will open on November 1 and close at noon on November 17, 1930. At that time the ballot box will be opened in the Board Room of this bank, the sealed envelopes containing the ballots will be opened, the votes counted and results of the election announced. The candidates are invited to be present or represented on this occasion.

While the banks in Groups 1 and 2 will not vote in this election, this circular is sent to them without forms for their information.

J. H. CASE,

Chairman of the Board.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF NEW YORK

October 29, 1930.

To the Presidents of Member Banks of Group 3:

Enclosed is the formal circular announcing nominations and transmitting ballots for the forthcoming election of two directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. As you know, our bank has nine directors on its board: three Class A directors representing the member banks; three Class B directors who must be "actively engaged in their district in commerce, agriculture or some other industrial pursuit"; and three Class C directors appointed by the Federal Reserve Board. On December 31 of this year the terms of Mr. Delmer Runkle, Class A director, and Mr. Samuel W. Reyburn, Class B director, will expire. Both of these directors were elected in 1927 by member banks in Group 3, that is, member banks with capital and surplus less than $201,000; and in the forthcoming election the banks in this group will elect two directors to succeed Mr. Runkle and Mr. Reyburn.

I am supplementing the formal circular with this letter in order to call your attention especially to the desirability of each bank in Group 3 casting a ballot in this election. Group 3 contains the largest number of banks in the district and casts the largest number of votes, but in past elections many banks have failed to exercise their privilege of voting. The wording of the Federal Reserve Act is such as to make it mandatory upon member banks to vote in the election of directors, and I hope that you will give this matter your attention. The attached circular sets forth the election procedure.

Very truly yours,

J. H. Case,
Chairman of the Board.
