[1] Less Government sales.
[2] Prior to 1959, this category corresponds closely with budget expenditures for national defense, shown on p. 35. Beginning with 1959, they differ because of inclusion of space program expenditures in this table; these expenditures, small in 1959-61, amounted to $1.6 billion in 1962.

DISPOSITION OF PERSONAL INCOME

According to current estimates, disposable personal income increased $5.4 billion (seasonally adjusted annual rate) in the third quarter. Consumption spending advanced more rapidly and the saving rate fell from 7.9 percent to about 7.1 percent as consumers adjusted their spending to the effects of the tax cut.

Gross private domestic investment (seasonally adjusted) in the third quarter was about the same as in the second quarter. Increases in nonresidential construction and producers' durable equipment were offset by decreases in residential construction and the rate of change in business inventories.

EXPENDITURES FOR NEW PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

The August survey of plant and equipment expenditures indicated a moderate upward revision in outlays planned for 1964, from 12.0 percent to 12.7 percent above 1963. The largest revisions from the May survey were made by durable goods manufacturers and the transportation industries.

[1] Excludes agriculture.
[2] Commercial and other includes trade, service, finance, communications, and construction.
[3] Estimates based on anticipated capital expenditures as reported by business in August 1964. Includes adjustments when necessary for systematic tendencies in anticipatory data.

NOTE.—Beginning 1959 all quarterly data are rounded to nearest $50 million.

Annual total is the sum of unadjusted expenditures; it does not necessarily coincide with the average of seasonally adjusted figures.

These figures do not agree with the totals included in the gross national product estimates of the Department of Commerce, principally because the latter cover agricultural investment and also certain equipment and construction outlays charged to current expense.

Excludes proprietors, self-employed persons, domestic servants, and personnel of the armed forces. Total derived from this table not comparable with estimates of nonagricultural employment of the civilian labor force, shown on p. 10, which include proprietors, self-employed persons, and domestic servants; which count persons as employed when they are not at work because of industrial disputes; and which are based on an enumeration of population, whereas the estimates in this table are based on reports from employing establishments.

PRODUCTION AND BUSINESS ACTIVITY

INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION

In October, the industrial production index declined 1.7 percent on a seasonally adjusted basis. Work stoppages in the auto industry were largely responsible for the decline.

U.S. BALANCE OF INTERNATIONAL PAYMENTS

The U.S. deficit on regular transactions declined in the third quarter to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $2.3 billion. A larger trade surplus and a sharp reduction in bank-reported capital outflows contributed to this improvement. For the first 9 months the deficit was just under a $2 billion rate, compared with $3.8 billion a year earlier.
