[1] Excludes agriculture.

[2] Commercial and other includes trade, service, finance, communications, and construction.

[3] Estimates based on anticipated capital expenditures as reported by business in late April and May 1968. Includes adjustments when necessary for systematic tendencies in anticipatory data.

NOTE.—Beginning 1959 all quarterly data are rounded to nearest $50 million.

Annual total is the sum of unadjusted expenditures; it does not necessarily coincide with the average of seasonally adjusted figures.

These figures do not agree with the totals included in the gross national product estimates of the Department of Commerce, principally because the latter cover agricultural investment and also certain equipment and construction outlays charged to current expense.

[2] Differs from total nonagricultural employment (p. 13), which includes persons with jobs but not at work for such reasons as vacation, illness, bad weather, and industrial disputes.

[3] Includes persons who worked part-time because of slack work, material shortages or repairs, new job started, or job terminated.

[4] Primarily includes persons who could find only part-time work.

[5] Average hours worked: usually full-time, 24.4; usually part-time, 17.7.

NONAGRICULTURAL EMPLOYMENT

Total nonagricultural payroll employment in May was 67.8 million, seasonally adjusted, about the same as in April. Employment increases of about 40,000 each in services and State and local government and 20,000 in trade were more than offset by strike-related declines in construction and telephone industries. Other industries showed little or no change.

[1] Includes all full- and part-time wage and salary workers in nonagricultural establishments who worked during or received pay for any part of the pay period which includes the 12th of the month. Excludes proprietors, self-employed persons, domestic servants, and personnel of the armed forces. Total derived from this table not comparable with estimates of nonagricultural employment of the civilian labor force, shown on p. 10, which include proprietors, self-employed persons, and domestic servants; which count persons as employed when they are not at work because of industrial disputes; and which are based on an enumeration of population, whereas the estimates in this table are based on reports from employing establishments.
