General object (title of appropriation), date of acts, references to Statutes at Large, or to Revised Statutes, and estimated amount required for each detailed object	Total amount to be appropriated under each head of appropriation	Amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928
Salaries and Expenses, General Supply Committee—Continued. All purchases of typewriting machines during the fiscal year [1928] 1929 by executive departments and independent establishments for use in the District of Columbia or in the field, except as hereinafter provided, shall be made from the surplus machines in the stock of the General Supply Committee. If the General Supply Committee is unable to furnish serviceable machines to any such service of the Government, it shall furnish unserviceable machines, if available, at current exchange prices, and such machines shall then be applied by the service of the Government receiving them as part payment for new machines from commercial sources in accordance with the prices fixed in the preceding paragraph. And in selling typewriting machines to the various services the General Supply Committee may accept an equal number of unserviceable machines as part payment thereon at the exchange prices quoted in the current general schedule of supplies (act Jan. 26, 1927, vol. 44, p. 1029)	$118,000.00	$115,000.00

SEC. 2. Those civilian positions in the field services under the several executive departments and independent establishments, the compensation of which was fixed or limited by law but adjusted for the fiscal year 1925 under the authority and appropriations contained in the act entitled "An act making additional appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1925, to enable the heads of the several executive departments and independent establishments to adjust the rates of compensation of civilian employees in certain of the field services," approved December 6, 1924, may be paid under the applicable appropriations for the fiscal year [1928] 1929 at rates not in excess of those permitted for them under the provisions of such act of December 6, 1924. SEC. 3. The head of an executive department or independent establishment, where, in his judgment, conditions of employment require it, may continue to furnish civilians employed in the field service with quarters, heat, light, household equipment, subsistence, and laundry service; and appropriations for the fiscal year [1928] 1929 of the character heretofore used for such purposes are hereby made available therefor: Provided, That the reasonable value of such allowances shall be determined and considered as part of the compensation in fixing the salary rate of such civilians. SEC. 4. That expenditures from appropriations made herein for the maintenance, upkeep, and repair, exclusive of garage rent, pay of operator, fuel and lubricants, on any one passenger-carrying vehicle used by the Treasury Department shall not exceed one-third of the market price of a new vehicle of the same make or class and in any case more than $500.

Estimates of appropriations required for the service of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1929—Continued

General object (title of appropriation), date of acts, references to Statutes at Large, or to Revised Statutes, and estimated amount required for each detailed object	Total amount to be appropriated under each head of appropriation	Amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928
PERMANENT SPECIFIC APPROPRIATIONS
Removing Obstructions in Mississippi, Atchafalaya, and Old Rivers	$100,000.00	$100,000.00
Operating Snag and Dredge Boats on Upper Mississippi, Illinois, and Minnesota Rivers	25,000.00	25,000.00

That for the purpose of securing the uninterrupted work of operating snag boats on the upper Mississippi River, and of removing snags, wrecks, and other obstructions in the Mississippi River, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition from time to time upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the amounts appropriated in this act for such purposes: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of such expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers.

That the annual appropriation for operating snag boats on the upper Mississippi River, made by section 7 of the act of August 11, 1888, entitled "An act making appropriations for the construction, repair, and preservation of certain public works on rivers and harbors, and for other purposes," is hereby made available for similar purposes on the Illinois River, from its mouth to Copperas Creek.

The permanent annual appropriation for the removal of snags in the Mississippi River, under the river and harbor act of August 11, 1888, shall be available for the removal of snags and other floating and sunken obstructions in the Atchafalaya and Old Rivers from the junction with the Mississippi and Red Rivers down the Atchafalaya River as far as Melville, Louisiana, and so much of said appropriation as the Secretary of War may deem necessary may be expended for such removal.

That the annual appropriation for operating snag boats on the upper Mississippi River, made by section 7 of the river and harbor act of August 11, 1888, is hereby made available for similar purposes on the Minnesota River, and other tributaries of the upper Mississippi River now or heretofore improved by the United States (U. S. C., p. 1083, secs. 604, 605).

THE PANAMA CANAL
The limitations on the expenditure of appropriations hereinbefore made in this act shall not apply to the appropriations for the Panama Canal.
For every expenditure requisite for and incident to the maintenance and operation, sanitation, and civil government of the Panama Canal and Canal Zone, including the following: Compensation of all officials and employees, foreign and domestic newspapers and periodicals; law books not exceeding $500; textbooks and books of reference; printing and binding, including printing of annual report; rent and personal services in the District of Columbia; purchase or exchange of typewriting, adding, and other machines; purchase or exchange, maintenance, repair, and operation of motor-propelled and horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles; claims for damages to vessels passing through the locks of the Panama Canal, as authorized by the Panama Canal act; claims for losses of or damages to property arising from the conduct of authorized business operations; claims for damages to property arising from the maintenance and operation, sanitation, and civil government of the Panama Canal; acquisition of land and land under water, as authorized in the Panama Canal act; expenses incurred in assembling, assorting, storing, repairing, and selling material, machinery, and equipment heretofore or hereafter purchased or acquired for the construction of the Panama Canal which are unserviceable or no longer needed, to be reimbursed from the proceeds of such sales; expenses incident to conducting hearings and examining estimates for appropriations on the Isthmus; expenses incident to any emergency arising because of calamity by flood, fire, pestilence, or like character not foreseen or otherwise provided for herein; traveling expenses, when prescribed by the governor of the Panama Canal to persons engaged in field work or traveling on official business; and for such other expenses not in the United States as the governor of the Panama Canal may deem necessary best to promote the maintenance and operation, sanitation, and civil government of the Panama Canal, all to be expended under the direction of the governor of the Panama Canal and accounted for as follows (U. S. C., p. 1638, sec. 1305; act Feb. 23, 1927, vol. 44, p. 1145):
Maintenance and Operation, Panama Canal—
For maintenance and operation of the Panama Canal; salary of the governor, $10,000; purchase, inspection, delivery, handling, and storing of materials, supplies, and equipment for issue to all departments of the Panama Canal, the Panama Railroad, other branches of the United States Government, and for authorized sales, payment in lump sums of not exceeding the amounts authorized by the injury compensation act approved September 7, 1916, to alien cripples who are now a charge upon the Panama Canal by reason of injuries sustained while employed in the construction of the Panama Canal; in all [$5,830,000], $6,847,000, including $250,000 for commencing the construction of a dam across the Chagres River at Alhajuela for the storage of water for use in the maintenance and operation of the Panama Canal, together with a hydro-electric plant, roadways, and such other work as in the judgment of the governor of the Panama Canal may be necessary, to cost in the aggregate not to exceed $12,000,000, together with all moneys arising from the conduct of business operations authorized by the Panama Canal act (U. S. C., p. 1638, sec. 1305; act Feb. 23, 1927, vol. 44, p. 1145)	$6,847,000.00	$5,830,000.00

Estimates of appropriations required for the service of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1929—Continued

General object (title of appropriation), date of acts, references to Statutes at Large, or to Revised Statutes, and estimated amount required for each detailed object	Total amount to be appropriated under each head of appropriation	Amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928
The governor of the Panama Canal, so far as the expenditure of appropriations contained in this act may be under his direction, shall, when it is more economical, purchase needed materials, supplies, and equipment from available surplus stocks of the War Department (act Feb. 23, 1927, vol. 44, p. 1146).
In addition to the foregoing sums there is appropriated for the fiscal year [1928] 1929 for expenditures and reinvestment under the several heads of appropriation aforesaid, without being covered into the Treasury of the United States, all moneys received by the Panama Canal from services rendered or materials and supplies furnished to the United States, the Panama Railroad Company, the Canal Zone government, or to their employees, respectively, or to the Panama Government, from hotel and hospital supplies and services; from rentals, wharfage, and like service; from labor, materials, and supplies and other services furnished to vessels other than those passing through the canal, and to others unable to obtain the same elsewhere; from the sale of scrap and other by-products of manufacturing and shop operations; from the sale of obsolete and unserviceable materials, supplies, and equipment purchased or acquired for the operation, maintenance, protection, sanitation, and government of the canal and Canal Zone; and any net profits accruing from such business to the Panama Canal shall annually be covered into the Treasury of the United States (same act).
In addition there is appropriated for the operation, maintenance, and extension of waterworks, sewers, and pavements in the cities of Panama and Colon, during the fiscal year [1928] 1929, the necessary portions of such sums as shall be paid as water rentals or directly by the Government of Panama for such expenses (same act).

CHAPTER XIII.—DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in order to defray the expenses of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, [1928] 1929, any revenue (not including the proportionate share of the United States in any revenue arising as the result of the expenditure of appropriations made for the fiscal year 1924 and prior fiscal years) now required by law to be credited to the District of Columbia and the United States in the same proportion that each contributed to the activity or source from whence such revenue was derived shall be credited wholly to the District of Columbia, and, in addition, $9,000,000 is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be advanced July 1, [1927] 1928, and all the remainder out of the combined revenues of the District of Columbia and such advances from the Federal Treasury as are authorized in the District of Columbia appropriation act for the fiscal year 1923, namely:

Executive Office, District of Columbia—

For personal services in accordance with the classification act of 1923, [$43,240] $43,700, plus so much as may be necessary to make salary of engineer commissioner $7,500: Provided, That in expending appropriations or portions of appropriations contained in this act for the payment for personal services in accordance with the classification act of 1923, the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such act, and in grades in which only one position is allocated the salary of such position shall not exceed the average of the compensation rates for the grade, except that in unusually meritorious cases of one position in a grade advances may be made to rates higher than the average of the compensation rates of the grade, but not more often than once in any fiscal year, and then only to the next higher rate: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service; (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed, as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such act; (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade in the same or a different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit; or (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the classification act of 1923 and is specifically authorized by other law (act Mar. 2, 1927, vol. 44, p. 1297) $43,700.00 $43,240.00

General object (title of appropriation), date of acts, references to Statutes at Large, or to Revised Statutes, and estimated amount required for each detailed object	Total amount to be appropriated under each head of appropriation	Amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928
In the widening and repaving of roadways hereinbefore provided for, 40 per centum of the entire cost thereof in each case shall be assessed against and collected from the owners of abutting property in the manner provided in the act approved July 1, 1914 (Thirty-eighth Statutes, page 524), as amended by section 8 of the act approved September 1, 1916 (Thirty-ninth Statutes, page 716). The owners of abutting property also shall be required to modify, at their own expense, the roofs of any vaults that may be under the sidewalk or parking on said street if it be found necessary to change such vaults to permit of the roadway being widened.
For minor changes in roadway and sidewalks on plans to be approved by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to facilitate vehicular and pedestrian traffic, $10,000.
For construction of curbs and gutters, or concrete shoulders in connection with all forms of macadam roadways and adjustment of roadways thereto, together with resurfacing of such roadways where necessary, $290,000.
In all, [$1,486,500] $1,750,000, to be disbursed and accounted for as "Gasoline tax road and street improvements," and for that purpose shall constitute one fund and be available immediately: Provided, That no part of such fund shall be used for the improvement of any street or section thereof not herein specified: Provided further, That assessments in accordance with existing law shall be made for paving and repaving roadways, where such roadways are paved or repaved with funds derived from the collection of the tax on motor-vehicle fuels and accretions by repayment of assessments: Provided further, That in the performance of the street paving work specially provided for in this act priority shall be given to those streets which are more in the nature of through thoroughfares or arterial highways (act Mar. 2, 1927, vol. 44, p. 1305)	$1,750,000.00	$1,486,500.00

Estimates of appropriations required for the service of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1929—Continued

General object (title of appropriation), date of acts, references to Statutes at Large, or to Revised Statutes, and estimated amount required for each detailed object	Total amount to be appropriated under each head of appropriation	Amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928
INDEFINITE APPROPRIATIONS
Refunding Taxes, District of Columbia— For payment of amounts collected by the District erroneously on account of taxes, fines, fees, and similar charges which are returned to the respective parties who may have erroneously paid the same (chargeable to the revenues of the District of Columbia) (act June 11, 1878, vol. 20, pp. 102–108, secs. 3, 4)	$50,000.00	$60,000.00
Refunding taxes: Expenditures—1929, $50,000; 1928, $60,000; 1927, $44,793.70.
Extension, etc., of Streets and Avenues, District of Columbia— In the various appropriations on account of extension of streets and avenues in the District of Columbia, it has been the practice to make the payment of the amount awarded as damages resulting from condemnation proceedings indefinite, inasmuch as no estimate could be made as to the amount that would be awarded by the jury of condemnation in the several causes (chargeable to the revenues of the District of Columbia) (act Mar. 3, 1899, vol. 30, p. 1345, sec. 3)	175,000.00	130,000.00
Extension of streets and avenues: Expenditures—1929, $175,000; 1928, $130,000; 1927, $114,817.72.
SPECIAL AND TRUST FUNDS
Industrial Home School Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from collections made on account of farm and greenhouse products by inmates of said school, and is used for miscellaneous expenses of maintenance, etc., on account of that institution (act June 11, 1898, vol. 29, p. 411, sec. 91)		4,000.00
Industrial home school fund: Expenditures—1928, $4,000; 1927, $1,846.27.
Escheated Estates Relief Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from proceeds of sale of effects of deceased persons in the District who die leaving no heirs or next of kin, and is expended for the benefit of the poor of the District (act Mar. 3, 1901, vol. 31, p. 1251, sec. 388)	5,000.00	3,000.00
Escheated estates relief fund: Expenditures—1929, $5,000; 1928, $3,000; 1927, $6,625.71.
Teachers' Retirement Fund Deductions, District of Columbia— Indefinite appropriation of the amounts deducted from the basic salaries of teachers of the public schools of the District of Columbia, to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of an individual account of the teacher from whose salary the deduction is made. The fund thus created to be held and invested until paid out as provided in the acts of Congress in relation thereto (acts Jan. 15, 1920, vol. 41, p. 387, secs. 1, 2; June 5, 1920, vol. 41, p. 852, sec. 1; June 11, 1926, vol. 44, p. 727)	340,000.00	325,000.00
Teachers' retirement fund deductions: Expenditures—1929, $340,000; 1928, $325,000; 1927, $338,167.59.
Miscellaneous Trust-Fund Deposits, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from deposits made by property owners, corporations, and others on account of work to be performed by the District in connection with cuts in streets, special sewers, and various engineering projects, the whole cost of which is payable by the depositor; there are also carried in this account several bequests for the benefit of certain charitable and religious institutions, and as a fund to provide awards for prizes for excellence in school work (act Apr. 27, 1904, vol. 33, p. 368, sec. 1)	950,000.00	1,000,000.00
Miscellaneous trust-fund deposits: Expenditures—1929, $950,000; 1928, $1,000,000; 1927, $1,014,569.36.
Washington Redemption Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from the collections on account of payments made by persons redeeming their property which has been previously sold for taxes; payments from this fund are made to the various holders of certificates representing purchases of such unpaid taxes (act June 11, 1878, vol. 20, pp. 102–108, secs. 1–15)	500,000.00	350,000.00
Washington redemption fund: Expenditures—1929, $500,000; 1928, $350,000; 1927, $645,105.23.
Permit Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from deposits made by property owners for various improvements, sewers, etc., of which the half cost is paid by said owner (act Aug. 7, 1894, vol. 28, p. 247, sec. 1)	50,000.00	80,000.00
Permit fund, District of Columbia: Expenditures—1929, $50,000; 1928, $80,000; 1927, $55,449.01.

Policemen and Firemen's Relief Fund, District of Columbia—
This fund consists of fines imposed upon members of the police and fire departments by way of discipline; rewards, gifts, and emoluments received for extraordinary services; a deduction of 2½ per cent of the monthly salary of each member of said departments; donations; net proceeds of sale of unclaimed property; any deficiencies in said fund being paid from the general revenues of the District of Columbia. Payments are made to pensioners under said fund pursuant to law (acts Feb. 25, 1885, vol. 23, pp. 316, 317, sec. 1; Sept. 1, 1916, vol. 39, p. 718, sec. 12; Sept. 8, 1916, vol. 39, p. 809, sec. 1)	$650,000.00	$590,000.00
Policemen and Firemen's fund: Expenditures—1929, $650,000; 1928, $605,000; 1927, $566,467.65.
Surplus Fund, District of Columbia—
This fund is derived from amount of surplus paid at tax sales by purchasers of tax-sale certificates on account of property sold for taxes; upon the redemption of the property by the owner the surplus reverts to the original depositor (act June 11, 1878, vol. 20. pp. 102–108, secs. 1–15).
Surplus fund: Expenditure, 1927, $17.
Outstanding Liabilities, District of Columbia—
This fund is derived from funds to the credit of disbursing officers of the District to meet checks issued and outstanding for a period of three years and over, the said funds being transferred from the disbursing officers' official credit to the credit of this fund (act Apr. 28, 1904, vol. 33, p. 574, secs. 1, 2).
Outstanding liabilities: Expenditures—1927, $163.24.

SEC. 2. That the services of draftsmen, assistant engineers, levelers, transitmen, rodmen, chainmen, computers, copyists, overseers, and inspectors temporarily required in connection with sewer, street, street-cleaning, or road work, or construction and repair of buildings and bridges, or any general or special engineering or construction work authorized by appropriations may be employed exclusively to carry into effect said appropriations when specifically and in writing ordered by the commissioners, and all such necessary expenditures for the proper execution of said work shall be paid from and equitably charged against the sums appropriated for said work; and the commissioners in their Budget estimates shall report the number of such employees performing such services, and their work, and the sums paid to each, and out of what appropriation: Provided, That the expenditures hereunder shall not exceed $20,000 during the fiscal year [1928] 1929: Provided further, That, excluding five inspectors in the sewer department [employed during the fiscal years 1927 and 1928], no person shall be employed in pursuance of the authority contained in this paragraph for a longer period than nine months in the aggregate during the fiscal year.

The commissioners are further authorized to employ temporarily such laborers, skilled laborers, drivers, hostlers, and mechanics as may be required exclusively in connection with sewer, street, and road work, and street cleaning, or the construction and repair of buildings and bridges, furniture and equipments, and any general or special engineering or construction or repair work, and to incur all necessary engineering and other expenses, exclusive of personal services, incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, said laborers, skilled laborers, drivers, hostlers, and mechanics to be employed to perform such work as may not be required by law to be done under contract, and to pay for such services and expenses from the appropriations under which such services are rendered and expenses incurred (act Mar. 2, 1927, vol. 44, p. 1332).

SEC. 3. That all horses, harness, horse-drawn vehicles necessary for use in connection with construction and supervision of sewer, street, street lighting, road work, and street-cleaning work, including maintenance of said horses and harness, and maintenance and repair of said vehicles, and purchase of all necessary articles and supplies in connection therewith, or on construction and repair of buildings and bridges, or any general or special engineering or construction work authorized by appropriations, may be purchased, hired, and maintained and motor trucks may be hired exclusively to carry into effect said appropriations, when specifically and in writing ordered by the commissioners; and all such expenditures necessary for the proper execution of said work, exclusive of personal services, shall be paid from and equitably charged against the sums appropriated for said work; and the commissioners in the Budget estimates shall report the number of horses, vehicles, and harness purchased, and horses and vehicles hired, and the sums paid for same, and out of what appropriation; and all horses owned or maintained by the District shall, so far as may be practicable, be provided for in stables owned or operated by said District: Provided, That such horses, horse-drawn vehicles, and carts as may be temporarily needed for hauling and excavating material in connection with works authorized by appropriations may be temporarily employed for such purposes under the conditions named in section 2 of this act in relation to the employment of laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics. SEC. 4. The commissioners are further authorized to employ temporarily such laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics as may be required in connection with water department work and to incur all necessary engineering and other expenses, exclusive of personal services, incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, said laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics to be employed to perform such work as may not be required by existing law to be done under contract, and to pay for such services and expenses from the appropriation under which such services are rendered and expenses incurred. SEC. 5. That the commissioners are authorized to employ in the execution of work the cost of which is payable from the appropriation account created in the District of Columbia appropriation act approved April 27, 1904, and known as the "Miscellaneous trust-fund deposits, District of Columbia," all necessary inspectors, overseers, foremen, sewers tappers, skilled laborers, mechanics, laborers, special policemen stationed at street-railway crossings, one inspector of gas fitting, two janitors for laboratories of the Washington and Georgetown Gas Light Companies, market master, assistant marketmaster, watchman, two bookkeepers in the auditor's office, clerk in the office of the collector of taxes, horses, carts, and wagons, and to hire therefor motor trucks when specifically and in writing authorized by the commissioners, and to incur all necessary expenses incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, including the purchase of one passenger-carrying motor vehicle at a cost not to exceed $750, purchase, exchange, maintenance, and operation [and including maintenance] of motor vehicles for inspection and transportation purposes, such services and expenses to be paid from said appropriation account. That any person employed under any of the provisions of this act who has been employed for ten consecutive months or more shall not be denied leave of absence with pay for which the law provides. SEC. 6. That the commissioners and other responsible officials, in expending appropriations contained in this act, so far as possible shall purchase material, supplies, including food supplies and equipment, when needed and funds are available, in accordance with the regulations and schedules of the General Supply Committee or from the various services of the Government of the United States possessing material, supplies, passenger-carrying and other motor vehicles, and equipment no longer required because of the cessation of war activities. Surplus articles purchased from the Government, if the same have not been used, shall be paid for at a reasonable price, not to exceed actual cost, and if the same have been used, at a reasonable price based upon length of usage. The various services of the Government of the United States are authorized to sell such surplus articles to the municipal government under the conditions specified, and the proceeds of such sales shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to amend, alter, or repeal the Executive order of December 3, 1918, concerning the transfer of office materials, supplies, and equipment in the District of Columbia falling into disuse because of the cessation of war activities (act Mar. 2, 1927, vol. 44, p. 1332).
