Federal Reserve Board
August 23, 1919.

CONDITION OF FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS.

Substantial reductions in reserve deposits, together with a considerable increase in the holdings of war paper, are indicated in the Federal Reserve Board's weekly bank statement issued as at close of business on August 22, 1919.

During the week the war paper holdings of the Reserve banks increased by 40.1 millions, while other discounts on hand declined 9.1 millions. Acceptance holdings, owing to the renewed demand for this class of paper by banks all over the country, fell off 11.5 millions. Holdings of war paper by the Chicago, St. Louis and Minneapolis banks include 69 millions of war paper discounted for other Federal Reserve banks, as against 71.4 millions the week before, and acceptance holdings of the Cleveland and San Francisco banks are inclusive of 41.4 millions (as against 42.5 millions) acquired from other Reserve banks. Redemption by the Government of temporary certificates of indebtedness, issued the week before to the New York and Chicago banks, accounts for the considerable decrease under this head. Aggregate earning assets show a decline for the week of 38.4 millions.

Government deposits increased 44.7 millions, reserve deposits declined 98.5 millions, largely at the New York Bank, and other deposits including foreign government credits decreased 11.1 millions. Net deposits work out 67.5 millions less than the week before. Federal Reserve note circulation increased 12.6 millions, while the Reserve banks' aggregate net liabilities on account of Federal Reserve bank note circulation is given as 215.8 millions, or 6.1 millions more than the week before. Export withdrawals of gold were partly offset by gold deposits and account for a decline of 8.3-millions in the gold reserves. Total cash reserves declined about 9 millions. The banks' reserve ratio, largely because of the reduction in deposit liabilities, shows a rise from 50.9 to 51.3 per cent.

Federal Reserve Board

August 23, 1919.

CONDITION OF MEMBER BANKS.

Aggregate increases of 162.8 millions in loans and investments, of which 38.7 millions represent net additional investments in Treasury certificates, accompanied by gains of 121.1 millions in net demand deposits and of 73.1 millions in Government deposits are indicated in the Federal Reserve Board's weekly statement of condition on August 15 of 769 member banks in leading cities.

Practically no changes are shown in the totals of United States bonds and Victory notes on hand, while war paper holdings show a decrease for all reporting banks of 6.8 millions. All other loans and investments show an increase for the week of 132.3 millions, by far the greater part of this increase being shown for the banks outside of New York City.

For the first time the statement segregates the amounts of loans secured by stocks and bonds, other than United States securities. The new item aggregates 2,946 millions, of which 1,310.3 millions represents the amount of such loans carried by the New York City banks.

Aggregate holdings of United States war securities and war paper increased from 3,456.6 to 3,488.3 millions and just as the week before constitute 23.4 per cent of the total loans and investments of all reporting banks. For the New York City banks an increase in this ratio from 26.9 to 27.7 per cent is noted. The week saw considerable concentration of Government deposits at New York City banks, while gains in other demand deposits (net) were more evenly distributed among all reporting banks. As against a reduction of 4.5 millions in cash on hand the banks report an increase of 5.8 millions in their reserve balances with the Federal Reserve banks.

Released for publication Monday morning August 25, 1919; not earlier.
