

NOTES ON INTERVIEW WITH MR. BURGESS

Date:

Project to include:

- 1. The Federal Reserve and the American Economy, before and after the 1930's.
- 2. Papers and biographical sketches of such people as Walter Stewart, W. R. Burgess, Roy Young, Benjamin Strong, etc.
- 3. Possible popular account of role and control of money in the economy.

Exploratory project:

- 1. Organize
- 2. Index
- 3. Summary
- 4. Evaluation

Advisory and Collaborating Committee:

- W. R. Burgess
- W. W. Riefler
- W. W. Stewart
- Roy Young

Papers (where and what?)

- Roy Young
- Walter Stewart
- Governor Strong -- papers in New York
- E. A. Goldenweiser -- papers ?
- Frederic A. Delano (see Preston Delano)
- Eugene Meyer
- Ogden Mills
- Andrew Mellon
- Dr. Adolphe Miller (wife still living)
- W. D. G. Harding
- Marriner Eccles
- Charles Hamlin--great historian of Board (maintained an index).
- Paul M. Warburg
- Carter Glass papers (Miss Meta Glass may have them?)

Library of Congress:

Archives

Federal Research Board Library.

Card File of what is where

Bibliography

Studies:-

Reserve Banks?

Some question of care

Six months' phase:-

New York Reserve Bank willing house me?

Library -- Marguerite Burnett, Librarian

Next step: Talk with Mr. Sproul

Me

Secretary

Travel money

Princeton Library:-

Stewart

Riefler

Goldenweiser

Gardner Patterson

MA (handwritten notes)

First interview with Mr. Burgess

MA:km