

TREASURY SOURCE MATERIAL FOR STUDY OF FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY FILES

Miss Lucille Henderson, Ext. 2887, has supervision; Mr. Percy Burdette, Ext. 2588, Rm. 1217, has active charge of these files.

Under the Treasury's decentralized system, documents flowing through the top offices are ordinarily returned for filing to the bureau or office having operating responsibility. Top officials usually maintain personal files for quick reference, consisting largely of carbons of material lodged in the operating bureaus; to a greater or lesser degree, depending on the wishes of the incumbent, some original material is retained in the top office files. When a top official leaves office, his files are transferred to Mr. Burdette.

Also, some operating offices in the Office of the Secretary, such as the Analysis Staff, send material directly to Mr. Burdette for initial filing.

Office of the Secretary files for the period 1918-33 have been transferred to National Archives.

DEBT DIVISION, ANALYSIS STAFF

Mr. Robert P. Mayo, Chief, Room 3036, Ext. 2027, will discuss the Debt Division files with you. Mrs. Margaret Wright, Room 3041, Ext. 2056, is in charge of records and files.

The Debt Division does economic analysis, statistical and correspondence work relating to debt management.

Much of the completed correspondence is sent to Mr. Burdette for filing; the remainder is kept in the Debt Division files.

The Technical Staff, which preceded the present Analysis Staff, left files which are lodged on the 5th floor of the Treasury and which will, when time and personnel permit, be weeded out and sent to the National Archives. The Debt Division has, I understand, removed certain material for their current files. Miss Florin, Ext. 2868, was in charge of the Technical Staff files and is familiar with them. However, Mr. Mayo will be able to advise you about them.

THE FISCAL SERVICE FILES

The Office of the Fiscal Assistant Secretary maintains its own files, as do the Bureau of Public Debt, the Bureau of Accounts and the Treasurer's Office.

Mr. William Heffelfinger, Assistant to the Fiscal Assistant Secretary, Ext. 381, Room 3452, is thoroughly familiar with the entire Fiscal Service and will provide access to the material in the various files.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S FILES

Mr. John Carlock, Assistant General Counsel, Room 3308, Ext. 324, will provide access to the material in the General Counsel's files relating to legislation, "the Accord," the Patman study, and other matters relating to the Federal Reserve in which that office participated.

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL FINANCE FILES

Mr. George H. Willis, Director, Room 3222, Ext. 305, can advise you about the OIF files on the Gold Stabilization Fund, etc.

BUREAU OF THE MINT FILES

Dr. Leland Howard, Acting Director, Room 3132, Ext. 435, will discuss with you the Mint files. Mrs. Agnes Mulliken, Room 5124, Ext. 2577, is in charge of the records.

BUREAU OF ENGRAVING AND PRINTING FILES

Mr. Alvin W. Hall, Director, Room 116, Engraving & Printing Bldg., 14th and C Streets, S.W., Code 137, Ext. 443, will be glad to talk to you and introduce you to Mr. Donovan, Chief of their Office of Administrative Services. Mr. Hall mentioned there was some interesting material on the emergency currency they printed and provided the Federal Reserve in March, 1933.

MAIN TREASURY LIBRARY

Miss Isabella S. Diamond, Room 5023, Ext. 2069, is in charge and will be very glad to help you. I understand the library has a wealth of material, including a complete set of the Secretary of the Treasury's Annual Reports.

THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

Mr. Lyle J. Holverstatt, Code 151, Ext. 6497, Room 11-E, National Archives Bldg., Pennsylvania Avenue and 5th Street, N. W., has charge of Treasury files lodged in the Archives. Mr. Robert Perry, in Treasury, is in charge of Treasury records and the transmittal of material to the Archives.

TREASURY HISTORY

Mrs. Elma Dewees, Room 1208, Ext. 2533, maintains a file of records of historical interest relating to the Treasury. Just how complete this is, I do not know.
