

COMMITTEE ON THE HISTORY OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Register of Papers

I

Processed: IB
Date: 10/25/55

FRANCIS GLOYD AWALT

The private papers of F. Gloyd Awalt, lawyer, assistant to the Secretary of the Treasury and Deputy Comptroller of the Currency, are still in his own possession. They consist of notes, correspondence and memoranda written during the period 1920-1933 when he served the Treasury in various capacities. He was active in Treasury-Federal Reserve relations, particularly during the banking holiday of 1933.

Linear feet of shelf space occupied
(or other measure):

Approximate number of items:

Mr. Awalt is not at present inclined to make the papers available to students.

Literary rights to these papers remain with Mr. Awalt, who intends to write his own memoirs from them.

See internal memorandum, 3/23/54

Biographical Note

1895, Jan. 3	Born, Laurel, Maryland
1914	Graduated Baltimore Polytechnic Inst.
1917	LL.B., University of Maryland
1917	Admitted to bar of Maryland, began law practice with firm of Marbury and French
1919	Assistant General Counsel, later General Counsel, Baltimore Ordinance Claims Board
1919, July 26	Married Jaffa Beatrice Haslup (two children)
1920	Assistant chief, later chief, award section of Board Contract Adjustment
1920-27	Special assistant to the Secretary of the Treasury, Washington, D. C.
1922-28	Second Deputy Comptroller of Currency and General Counsel
1928-32	First Deputy Comptroller of Currency and General Counsel
1932-33	Acting Comptroller of Currency
1933-36	First Deputy Comptroller of Currency and General Counsel
	Formerly member law firm of Hewes, Prettyman and Awalt, Washington, D. C.
Now	Member, law firm of Awalt, Clark and Sparks, Washington, D. C.

Source: Who's Who in America, 1952/53, vol. 27, Marquis