Description of Series

The Lansing papers in the Library of Congress have not been indexed, but have been spot-checked. The Library has an extensive list of subjects included.

The collection consists of:

62 volumes of correspondence and other papers

7 desk books

13 volumes of diaries, unexamined until 1949 on account of restrictions.

The papers concern chiefly Mr. Lansing's services as Counsellor for the State Department, March 20, 1914 to June 23, 1915, and as Secretary of State, June 23, 1915 to February 13, 1920, with some material beyond that date and up to the time of his death in 1928.
