HENRY CABOT LODGE

(1850 - 1924)

The papers of Henry Cabot Lodge, author, Congressman, Senator from 1893-1924, were deposited with the Massachusetts Historical Society about 1928. They have been sorted and arranged by alphabet and year, but no inventory has been made.

Measure of size: 125 file boxes

Approximate number of items:

The Lodge papers were closed in March, 1951, due to professional misconduct of a professor working with them. Permission to use, should it be obtainable, should be sought from Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., American Ambassador to the U.N., 2 Park Avenue, N.Y. 16. The other two trustees in control of the use of these papers are John Davis Lodge, American Ambassador to Spain, American Embassy, Madrid and the son of Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr.
