

COMMITTEE ON THE HISTORY OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Register of Papers

I

Processed: MA
Date: 10/31/55

ADOLPH CASPAR MILLER

(1866 - 1953)

The great bulk of the working papers of Dr. Adolph Miller, economist, college professor, member of the first Federal Reserve Board and serving until 1936, is incorporated in the files of the Board. A small collection was found in Dr. Miller's house after his death, was listed, and is held separately in the Board.

Linear feet of shelf space occupied: 16

Approximate number of items: 63

Permission to use this material should be sought from the Federal Reserve Board.

See: Internal memoranda on Miller papers

Biographical Note

1866, Jan. 7	Born, San Francisco (of German immigrant parents)
1887	A.B., University of California, Berkeley
1888	A.M., Harvard
1889-90	Instructor in economics, Harvard
1890-91	Asst. professor history and politics, Univ. of California
1891-92	Assoc. professor political economy and finance, Cornell
1892-1902	Professor of finance, Univ. of Chicago
1902-13	Flood Professor of Economics and Commerce, University of California
1905, Oct. 7	Married Mary Sprague of Chicago (1 dau., dec.)
1913-14	Asst. to Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior
1914-36	Member, Federal Reserve Board (apptd. Aug. 10, 1914)
	Chairman, Building Committee, Federal Reserve Building
1953, Feb. 13	Died
Author of:	Speeches, papers, on banking etc. See appended list.

See: Internal memorandum (5/9/55) of interview (5/18/54) with Lucy Sprague Mitchell for other biographical information.

See: Who's Who in America, 1946/47, vol. 24, Marquis