

COMMITTEE ON THE HISTORY OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Register of Papers

I

Processed: MA
Date: 5/24/56WOODROW WILSON

(1856 -- 1924)

The papers of Woodrow Wilson, college professor, Governor of New Jersey, twenty-eighth President of the United States whose administration was distinguished in its first year by the passing of the Federal Reserve Act, are chiefly located in the Library of Congress. Smaller groups of Wilson material may be found in the National Archives, the Boston Public Library, the university libraries of Princeton, Yale, Virginia, North Carolina, Duke and Michigan.

The papers at the Library of Congress have been sorted and catalogued. Permission for their use must be sought from Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. This Committee has that permission.

From these collections papers have been published in three sets - The Public Papers of Woodrow Wilson (6 vols. 1925-27 edited by Ray Stannard Baker and William E. Dodd); The Intimate Papers of Col. House (1926-28, 4 vols. edited by Charles Seymour); Woodrow Wilson, Life and Letters (8 vols. 1927-39, by Ray Stannard Baker), but much correspondence remains unpublished.
