ANNUAL REPORT: No
Published: No

DESCRIPTION OF LIBRARY:

A financial library containing selected material specializing in the following subjects:

CENTRAL BANKS AND BANKING. Histories of important central banking systems. Current (two-year) files of annual reports and monthly reviews of such banks.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM. Complete file of the annual reports of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Reserve Bulletin. Annual reports of the Federal Reserve Banks and the monthly reviews of the Federal Reserve Banks. Textbooks on the history and functions of the Federal Reserve System.

PUBLIC FINANCE: Chief U. S. government publications and some textbook material on government finance with special emphasis on the U.S. budget. File of reports of the Comptroller of the Currency and of the Secretary of the Treasury back of that, to the founding of the Republic is almost complete.

LOCAL BANKING. Local banking histories numbering nearly fifty volumes in addition to general histories. It took a good deal of research to gather these and much material is catalogued that might not be found readily without such a guide. A twenty year file of Banking manuals and annual reports of the banking commissioners of the New England states. Congressional hearings and preliminary bills and reports for important banking legislation.

PERIODICALS. A complete run of the Commercial and Financial Chronicle and its predecessor Hunt's Merchants Magazine back to 1832.

MONEY AND GOLD. Histories and treatises on these related subjects and all pertinent League of Nations publications. Includes a file of Director of the Mint reports from 1911 to date and the National Monetary Commission Reports.

NEW ENGLAND ECONOMY. Growing collection of books, pamphlets, special studies and newspaper clippings on various aspects of the New England economy, especially industries, finance, agriculture, employment, trade, and transportation.
