

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

*A bibliography of the Faculty of Political Science of Columbia University, 1880 - 1930.
N.Y.: Columbia Univ. Press, 1931.*

CUSICK, M. R., compiler

LIST OF BUSINESS MANUSCRIPTS IN BAKER LIBRARY.
Boston: Baker Library, 1932. Pp. xii, 112.

list of source materials for students of ec. history (508 entries of manuscripts), material classified by industries and types of econ. activity. Within each industry arrangement of collections is chronological. Accompanying many of entries is estimate of character of the material.

e.g. Topic "Banking" - 13 entries embracing inter alia, 48 vols. of the Massachusetts Bank, 1784-1903;
~~67 vols. of Suffolk Bank, 1818-190~~

67 vols of Plymouth Bank, 1803-1875
230 vols. of Suffolk Bank, 1818-1903.

IRELAND, N. O.

An index to indexes: a subject bibliography of published indexes. Useful ref. series no. 67.
Boston: F. W. Faxon, 1942. Pp. 123.

Collections

THE KRESS LIBRARY OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

See November BULLETIN, 1938, of the Harvard Business School Alumni Association (p. 26). This article by A. H. Cole describes the Foxwell collection purchased some years ago for the Harvard Business School.

Library Association (London, England)

THE SUBJECT INDEX TO PERIODICALS, 1917-1919; HISTORICAL, POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC SCIENCES.

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Collections

has purchased the private library of DR. RICHARD T. ELY, containing 7,500 books, 100,000 pamphlets and many volumes of journals and periodicals. Included also are valuable English documents and deeds from the time of Henry VII to George IV.

ROYAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Writings on British History,
1934, compiled by Alexander Taylor Milne.
London: Jonathan Cape, 193

New series-- to provide an annual bibliography of writings in English history

WARBURG COLLECTION

A collection of 3,500 books and 2,000 pamphlets on economics was presented to New York University by Felix M. Warburg in the name of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff, who acquired the collection from a nephew, Professor Edgar Salin of Germany, member of the faculty of the University of Basle, Switzerland.

AMERICAN ECONOMIC REVIEW,
September, 1935, p. 608.