

National bank notes-Circulation

Anderson, George. B.

The profit in national bank note circulation.
(In: American Bankers Association Journal, August, 1931, p.83-84.)

Privileged bonds now confined to three, of which all are callable at the option of the Federal Treasury

Consols will be allowed to run indefinitely.

M

National bank notes

Anderson, George E.

The profit in national bank note circulation
(In: American Bankers association Journal, August, 1931, p.83-84.)

Privileged bonds now confined to three, of which all are callable at the option of the Federal Treasury.

Consols will be allowed to run indefinitely.

BELL, Spurgeon

Author File

"Profit on National Bank Notes," AMERICAN
ECONOMIC REVIEW, II, No. 1, March, 1912, pp. 38-60.

U.S. Currency
National Bank Notes

Bell, Spurgeon

"Profit on national bank notes,"

AMERICAN ECONOMIC REVIEW, Vol. II

March 1912 pp. 38-60

7

National bank notes

Chapin, Will E.

National bank notes depict the nation's history. (In: The Bankers' Magazine. August, 1927. p.165.)

FAIRCHILD, Fred Rogers

"Bond-secured bank notes and elasticity,"
THE OUTLOOK, Vol. 88, No. 11, March 14, 1908,
pp. 590-93.

perverse elasticity of national bank notes

"Fundamental Defects of the Bond-Secured Bank Notes," BANKERS MAGAZINE, Vol. LXXVI, No. 4, April 1908, pp. 487-90.

M

National bank notes.

Hawkins, John W.

National bank note's place in money system.

(In A.B.A. journal. v.17, Dec.,1924. p.372.)

M

v.f. National bank notes.

National Jenks, Jeremiah W.

bk.notes

An analysis of the question of the retirement of the National bank notes. (In: Stable money association bulletin, January-February, 1929, p. 5-)

Clipped and filed in v.f.

JENKS, J. W.

An analysis of the question of the retirement of the national bank notes, BULLETIN+ STABLE MONEY ASSOCIATION,
January and February, 1929.

M

v. f. Jenks, Jeremiah W.
National An analysis of the question of the retire-bk. notes ment of the National bank notes. (In: Stable
money association Bulletin, January-February, 1929, p.5-)

Clipped and filed in v.f.

National bank notes.

M.

National bank notes

Mountjoy, E. E.

Will the national bank note go? (In: A.B.A.
Journal. July, 1927. p.23.)

M

v.f. National bank notes

National Mellon, Andrew W.

bank
notes
Increases in currency circulation. A copy of letter to Mr. Mellon by Hon. David Walsh and the answer. (In: Congressional Record, January 27, 1932, p.2948.)

Re-proposal to increase national-bank circulation.

Clipped and filed in v.f. National bank note

M

National bank notes

Mountjoy, E. E.

National bank notes continued. (In: American Bankers Association Journal, Feb.1929, p.754)

New notes in reduced size to be issued simultaneously with the other new currency.

Gives a table explaining the markings of the different denominations.

M

Mountjoy, E. E.

National Bank notes continued. (In: American Bankers Association Journal, Feb.1929, p.754)

New Notes in reduced size to be issued simultaneously with the other new currency.

Gives a table explaining the markings of the different denominations.

National bank notes

M.

Mountjoy, E. E.

Will the national bank note go? (In: A.B.A.
Journal. July, 1927. p.23.)

National bank notes.

M

National bank notes.

Nahm, Max. B.

National bank circulation. (In Commercial and Financial Chronicle. American bankers' convention section. v.119, Oct. 18, 1924. p. 146-8.)

SCHUETTE, J.

Retirement of national bank circulation,
BANKERS MAGAZINE,
December, 1915.

WEYFORTH, W. O.

The retirement of national bank notes, JOURNAL
OF POLITICAL ECONOMY,
October, 1925.

M

National bank notes.

Walter, William E.

National bank note circulation should be maintained. (American banker. v.89, Nov. 10, 1924. p.19.)

WEYFORTH, William O.

The retirement of national bank notes,
JOURNAL OF POLITICAL ECONOMY,
October, 1925.

Pp. 19.

A study of the progress of retirement of national bank notes since the Federal Reserve Act, the factors interfering with retirement, and the probable course of retirement. Abstract by W.O.W., AMERICAN ECONOMIC REVIEW, XVI, Mar., 1926, p. 188.

M

National bank notes.

National bank note circulation since the passage of the Federal reserve act. (In American banker. v.89, Nov. 10, 1924. p.5.)

M

National bank notes.

National banknotes to be continued. (In:
The United States Banker, Jan, 1929, p.3.)

To a Questionnaires sent out by A. S. Pratt & sons to 4,287 banks, 3,813 urged continuation of national bank notes, 138 were opposed and 336 were indifferent.

M

National bank notes.

National banks' desires for circulation important. (In The American banker. v.90, Jan.5 1925. p.6-7.)

M

National bank notes.

Profit on national bank circulation based upon 2% consols of 1930. (In The Chronicle. v.119, Dec.20,1924. p.2827-8.)

First national corporation of Boston has prepared a circular to show profit to be derived from national bank circulation based upon purchase of 2% Consols of 1930.

Copy also in v.f. under National bank notes.

First nat'l corporation of Boston (a.e.)

National bank notes-Circulation

National banknote circulation. (In: American Bankers Association Journal, May 1934, p. 76, 77)

Three significant factors point toward a material decline within the next few years in the volume of outstanding national banknotes.

Chart showing the ratio of outstanding national banknotes to capital.

Tabulation of issues eligible to secure circulation until July 21, 1931 and until maturity or redemption.

National bank notes-Circulation privilege

M

National bank notes- Circulation privilege

Attorney general renders opinions on National bank note circulation. (In: A.B.A. Journal, Sept., 1932, p. 47)

"No provision for a permanent expansion of the currency beyond the three-year period."

Glass Steagall act 1932

M
National bank notes-Circulation privilege

Discussion in Congress on the affect of the circulation privilege on the market and conditions in general. July 8, 1932. (In: Congressional Record, July 8, 1932, p.15284-303.)

Clipped and filed in v. f. National bank notes: Circulation privilege

Glass Steagall act 1932

National bank notes-Circulation privilege

National banknotes circulation. (In: American Bankers Association Journal, May 1934, p. 76,77)

Three significant factors point toward a material decline within the next few years in the volume of outstanding national banknotes.

Chart showing the ratio of outstanding national banknotes to capital.

Tabulation of issues eligible to secure circulation until July 21, 1931 and until maturity or redemption.

National bank notes-Circulation

National bank notes

The Cost of Banknote Circulation. (In: Banking, Journal of the A.B.A. February 1935, p.84.)

Many banks, overburdened with excess reserves are confronted with the necessity of analyzing the cost of their banknote circulation in relation to the income derived from it. Many banks are using their reserves to retire banknote circulation entirely or partially.

Reserves

WEYFORTH, William O.

"The retirement of national bank notes," JOURNAL
OF POLITICAL ECONOMY,
October, 1925.

A study of the progress of retirement of national bank notes since the Federal Reserve Act, the factors interfering with retirement, and the probable future course of retirement. Abstract by W. O. Weyforth, AMERICAN ECONOMIC REVIEW, XVI, March, 1926, p. 188.

Weyforth W.O.

The retirement of national bank notes,
JOURNAL OF POLITICAL ECONOMY, Vol. 33
No. 5, Oct. 1925, pp. 531-549.

Retirement provisions of FR Act

Weyforth, W.O.

The retirement of national bank notes,
JOURNAL OF POLITICAL ECONOMY, Vol.
Vol. 33 no. 5 October 1925, pp. 531-549.