

MELLON (Cooke), Helen J.

CREDIT CONTROL; A STUDY OF THE GENESIS OF THE QUALITATIVE APPROACH TO CREDIT PROBLEMS.

Washington: American Council on Public Affairs, 1941.
Pp. xii, 134.

Review:

by Esther Rogoff, THE AMERICAN ECONOMIC REVIEW, XXXI, Dec., 1941, pp. 887-88

by L. W. Mints, JOURNAL OF POLITICAL ECONOMY, LI, April, 1943, p. 185.

MELLON, Helen J. (Mrs. E. Thomas Cooke)

CREDIT CONTRA. A study of the Genesis of the Qualitative Approach to Credit Problems.

Introduction by B.H. Beekhart. Washington D.C.:
American Council on Public Affairs. [c. 1941].
Pp. v + 134.

Preface
I. The present position of qualitative theory, pp. 1-21.

II. The beginnings of qualitative theory, pp. 23-34

III. The Banking School, pp. 40-56

IV. The Reserve Ratio pp. 57-73

~~Part II: The Contributions of American Writers.~~

V. Convertible Paper as a Substitute for a Specie Currency (American theory up to 1850) 75-96

VI. The Clearance of Credit
pp. 97-121

VII. Summary & Conclusions

MIKESELL, R. F.

Some limitations on monetary control,
BANKERS MAGAZINE, Sept. 1941.

3 pp.

MIKESELL, R. F.

"Some limitations on monetary control,"
BANKERS MAGAZINE (New York),
September, 1941.
Pp. 4.