A SHORT HISTORY OF THE NEW DEAL. New York:
Crofts, 1934. Pp. 151.

An historical account of the New Deal in its relation to agriculture, foreign trade, the credit system, and industry...The author, while mildly critical, appears to be fair in his interpretations of the several policies discussed.

Two chaps. treat with the New Deal in theory as far as it affects (i) agriculture and industry and (ii) the credit structure and regaining of foreign markets. Then follows a discussion of the New Deal in practice. In the appendix is a legislative record of the 73d Congress.
