Excellent article. Holds that altho gold has disappeared from circulation note issues of the Bank of France have assumed enormous proportions, foreign exchanges have caused anxiety, the monetary, banking and financial conditions of France are sound and warrant the confidence of investors in public funds. The country can bear a debt three times as large as that of 1870. Abstract by Don C. Barrett, A.E.R., March 1916, p. 242.
