A meeting is recommended of representatives of the central banks under the leadership of the Bank of England to which representatives of the U.S. should be invited. The object is to obtain cooperation among the chief regulating agencies in the various countries. In order to economize in the use of gold the adoption of the gold exchange standard is recommended. Abstract, by N.H. Whitney, AMERICAN ECONOMIC REVIEW, XIII, March, 1923, p. 182.
