"The monetary standards of New Zealand and Australia," ECONOMIC JOURNAL,
December, 1924.

Describes the "credit" exchange standard which has been developed in N.Z. and less perfectly in Australia. The essence of this system consists in the maintenance of an approximately fixed exchange rate and the automatic increase or decrease of monetary media within the exchange standard country to the extent of the net balance of its payment through the exchanges. Abstract by W. O. Weyforth, AMERICAN ECONOMIC REVIEW, XV, June, 1925, p. 395.
