

COMMITTEE ON THE HISTORY OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Register of Papers

I

Processed: IB
Date: 1/13/56

EDWARD MANDELL HOUSE

(1858 - 1938)

The papers of Edward M. House, diplomat, representative of President Wilson to European countries, representative of the United States to Versailles War Council, are deposited in the Yale University Library at New Haven, Connecticut.

Measure of size:

678 cubic feet for manuscript files
162 linear feet for manuscript boxes
105 linear feet for reference books

Approximate number of items: 150,000 manuscript correspondence sheets, apart from manuscripts of official records

The library has typewritten lists of House and Polk correspondents of which photostat copies can be supplied at cost.

There are no restrictions on the use of the collection beyond approval of the Library Committee upon recommendation of the curator.

See letter dated 1/12/56 from Yale Library

II

- 2 -

Biographical Note

1858, July 26	Born, Houston, Texas
1878-79	Studied at Cornell University
1881, Aug. 4	Married Loulie Hunter (2 daughters)
1914-16	Personal representative of President Wilson to European governments
1917	Special representative of U. S. at Inter-Allied Conference of Premiers and Foreign Ministers, Paris
1917	Representative of U. S. in Supreme War Council at Versailles
1918	Acted for U. S. in negotiation of Armistice with Central Powers
1918-19	Member, American Commission to Negotiate Peace
1938, Mar. 28	Died
Joint Editor of:	What Really Happened at Paris.

See: Who Was Who in America, 1897-1942, vol. I, Marquis