HENRY PARKER WILLIS

(1874 - 1937)

The papers of H. Parker Willis, professor of economics, editor, first Secretary to the Federal Reserve Board, economic consultant to the Federal Reserve Board and the U. S. Congress, are in his home in Staten Island. The papers prior to 1920 are stored in four or five boxes in the cellar. The papers since 1920 are in the attic. This collection has been neither sorted nor indexed.

Measure of size: 2-3 filing cabinets of 4-drawer type

Information about the papers and permission to use them must be sought from H. Parker Willis' son, Parker Willis, at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, in whom title rests by the terms of his father's will.
