Dear Marriner:

The enclosed copies of wires and a letter from Mr. Willis of the Crocker First National Bank will, no doubt, be of interest to you, so I am enclosing them herewith.

Yours very truly,

Mr. L. S. Corey,
Vice-President & General Manager,
The Utah Construction Company,
Ogden, Utah.

Dear Mr. Corey:

Following our telephone conversation the other morning, telegrams were sent, copies of which are enclosed herewith.

I think I explained to you our position with respect to Senator Johnson. We communicated with our friends across the street, as you suggested, but they did not feel inclined to take any part in such a request. The Bankers Association will be communicated with but, of course, there too there is a possibility that some of the members of the Association may be so misguided as to not feel the same way we do. We can only suggest a course of action to them but naturally cannot insist upon it. We shall have some idea of what they intend to do within the next few days.

With kind personal regards,

Very truly yours,

(signed) F. G. WILLIS
